A very valuable "dead letter" came to life agin at the letter office in Washington, on Monday last. Last September a gentleman of one of the Westorn States purchased a farm still further out in the "Eden of America." He was going in person to survey his new possessions, but instead of carrying a sum of $2,500 about him, preferred consigning it to the mails. On arriving at the town which was the terminus of his journey, he inquired at the post office for the appearance. The silence and waiting to the failure of the mail, on that particular day, or some other cause, he did not receive it. The alleged loss was communicated to the Deport whe coldness of the welcome.
