In our clites, how hurtfal and insipid and dangerous are the most of the amusements of the young. The young man is thrown into the most dangerous associations; learns to drink, to swear, and to swagger, and these associations soon become necessary to him, because he has a positive disrellah for the restraints of home planeures, and for useful and instructive reading. So with the young lady. Her time is spent, in numerous instances, between novel reading and dress making and receiving calls, fashionable amusements and dissipation, vicious

"One of the mest striking proofs of the pro-grees of reinement, in the United States, is the rapid increase of tasts for ornamental gardening and rural embellishment in all the older portions of the northern and middle States.

It cannot be denied, that the tastsful improve-ment of a country residence is both one of the most agreeable and the most natural recreations that than occupy a cultivated mind. With all the interest, and, to many, all the excitement of the more seductive amusements of society, it the interest, and, to many, as the excitement of the more schundive amusements of society, it has the incalculable advantage of fostering only the purest feelings, and (unlike many other on-cepations of business men) refining, instead of hardening the heart. The great German poet, Gosthe, says—

· Happy the man who hath except the town. Him did an angel bless when he was born.

Imidia as asgal bless when he was born."

This spontrophe was addressed to the devotes of country life as a member of a clare, in the old world, where men, for the most part, are conficed to certain walks of life by the limits of casts, to a degree totally unknown in this bountry.

The business of this week in the Galinet has been the appolatment of freeign Ministers, and the preparation of the instructions under which they are to act. No journal having yet been formally recognized and adopted as the Administic organ, we have no authoritative announcement of the decision in any case. But it has leaked out that on Wednesday last, the following appointments were made or agreed upon, to wit:

John A. Dill, Minister to France.
