The Diario de la Marina, chiming in with the other Spanish organs, pronounces the appointment of Mr. Soule to the Spanish Mission entirely proper and acceptable. Very well, gentlemen. Signor Gil Bias de Sautillane has assured us that next to the nice sense of honor of the Cavaller, the coward's impeneirability to insult is most desirable. It is a good Castilian maxim, and Castilians may abide by it.—N. Y. Timer.

SHIPMENTS AT St. Lours.—The St. Louis papers notice heavy shipments of corn, cats, and harley from that port to the Ohio river and New York. Corn was selling as 85 to 40 cents, sacks included. The total purchase of grain for the Ohio is estimated at 80 to 100,000 bushels. Rarley was selling at 30 to 33 cents, sacks included. Robert, G. Shaw, of Boston, whose death is ley was selling at 80 to 38 cents, sanks included.

Robert, G. Shaw, of Boston, whose death is just announced, leaves behind an estate worth a million of dollars. For haif a century, he was constantly engaged in works of kindness and benevolence, and during that period it is estimated his contributions, in aid of objects of public and private charity, here amounted to the large sum of four hundred thousand dollars. sum of four hundred thousand dollars.

Sachifice of Human Life.—Within the last for days, beddes several minor dissators of the same class, we have recorded the bias of 126 lives by the wreck and burning of the steamer Independence, on the Pacific coast; 16 by the colling lision on the Central and Southern (Mich.) Rallings, and 25 by the burning of the Ocean Ware, on Lake Ontario. To this must be added scores of pursues maimed or disfigured for life.
