The effects of a tree and sound littrary educa-lina - will the Bishop musk our words-are those which have lost the power, and light; and infi-cence of Diving Truth. Any church which de-pends for its success solely or mainly upon dril-ling into a child the peculiar coremonics or tensis of its own faith, and with instilling into his mind at the same time an invoterate hared and exception of all other denominations, has reason to fear the Common Schools. These churchers on the other and which are your motion ject as religion?". This may suffice as to the "darkness" of the Common School. We now come to the "light," of which the Bishop complains. Our article, however, is sufficiently long for one day, and we reserve our comments on this more important topic until to-morrow.

Treasen is of fear the Common Schools. These churches, on the other hand, which rely mainly if not solely for their exicoses, mono the Power of Divine Truik, as it is presented to the hearie and sonsciences of men, when read in the Bi bie, or plainly and estimative presented from the Public find in the common schools a sure defence against that sectarian biggetry which has always been a great hidrance to the spreed of a vital Christianity. If the impartation of a literary and scientific duration to the minds of children, is schoels where not a sylbable is uitered by a tescher in derogation of the Bible, but where is always of a wital taslenge approximation of the Bible, but where is always of a literary and treated as the basit of the singlet, and treated is dehoels of the singlets and treated that lattery and have not subscribed to the Extension fund, while see the necessity of giving their as-taslation, can destroy the inflaces of religion on the beart of the shill, in destito of a mernat it to the beart of the shill in destito of a mernat it to the beart of the shill in destito of a mernat it to the beart of the shill of a strated are not on it or scon added to it.
