HOME MATTERS.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Hon. P. C. Shannon, President Judge.

In the Case of Conlon vs. Dixon's admrs, reported yesterday, it was contended by plaintiff, that the successor of deceased had made vague admissions of indebtedness to plaintiff, to strangers. It was urged that these admissions removed the bar of the statute of limitations.

Judge Shannon charged the jury that plaintiff could only recover for six years services, that being the time mentioned in the statute.—The admissions of Dixon's successor were too vague, were made to strangers, and not in the presence of plaintiff.

The jury however, found a verdict for the whole amount claimed—$1791,67.

John Stewart vs David Stewart's Executors. No. 287, April term, 1852. McCandless and Shaler for plaintiff; Woods and McCarrahan for defendants.

The plaintiff was the son of David Stewart, deceased, and had resided and worked on the farm of his father in Lawrier's township, until his death. The farm was willed to other parties. The son now brings suit to recover the value of his services from the year 1839, at which time he received $2000.

In defence, it was contended that the payment of this sum was in liquidation of all services past and to come. It was also urged that the son had made money in managing and improving the farm, having had control of all the proceeds. On trial.

ASSAULTS AND BATTERIES.—Three Germans, named Hans Roeble, Ann Roeble, and Charles Maxwell were arrested yesterday and brought before Alderman Major on the oath of Ann Keesler, who accused them of injuring three of her children. One had thrown a stone, another had beaten a daughter with a stick, and another had thrown a bucket of water over the whole three. Alderman Major in his impressive style, delivered an admirable lectiqre, at the conclusion of which, they were discharged, by settling the costs.

ETHIOPIAN OPERA TROUPE.—The preparations which have been going on in Wilkins' Hall, for the reception of the Ethiopian Opera Troupe, for some time past, have at length been completed, and Mr. J. E. The Opera will be on the plan of Christy's Minstrels, New York, and is intended to be permanent. All lovers of negro melodies, comicalities, &c., should patronize this place of amusement extensively. The Hall has been refitted in a most elegant style. The seats have been enshrined, an extensive and handsome stage has been erected, and the walls and ceiling beautifully ornamented.
