Annual advertisements, for office, to be charged the same as other advertisements.

Advertisements not marked on the copy for a specified number of insertions, will be continued till forbid, and payment exacted accordingly.

The privilege of annual advertisers is strictly limited to their own individual business; and all advertisements for the benefit of other persons, as well as all advertisements not immediately connected with their own business, will be charged as transient advertisements, in length or style.

Advertisements, inserted in large type or with unusual display, will be charged at the usual rates. For such transient advertising, bills will be separately rendered, and promptly must be desired.

All advertisements for Administrators, Executors, Assignees, Orphans' Court, township and other public notices, and notices of tolls, to be charged half price, payable strictly in advance.

Marriage notices to be charged 50 cents.

Death notices inserted without charge, unless accompanied by funeral invitations or obituary notices, and when so accompanied, to be paid for.

Regular advertisers, and all others sending communications or requiring notices designed to call attention to fairs, lectures, concerts, or any public entertainments, where charges are made for admission, and all notices of private association—every notice designed to call attention to pecuniary interest, calculated or intended to promote individual interest, must only be inserted with the understanding that the sums is to be paid for. If inserted to be inserted in the local columns. No name will be charged at the rate of not less than 10 cents per line.

Simply or short notices to be charged triple price.

Tavern License Petitions $2 each.

Real Estate Agents' and Auctioneers' advertisements not to be charged under yearly rates, but to be allowed a discount of three and one third per cent. from the amount of bills.
