TOU." I little expected to see him again, but about B o'clock the servant said a man and his girl, with a gentleman and lady were waiting in the reception room. I told him to ask the lady and gentleman to walk up to the parlor and sit a moment, while I sent the candidates for marriage away, being determined never to unite another drunken couple, not dreaming that there was any sympathy between the parties. But they would not come up; they wanted to see that couple married. So I went down and found the squalidly wretched pair in company with a well-dress ed laboring man, for he wore a fine black coat, silk yest, gold watch-chain, clean white shirt and cravat, polished calf-skin boots; and his wife was just as tidily dressed as anybody's wife, and her face beamed with telligence, and the way in which she clung to the arm of her husband, as she seemed to shrink from my sight, told that she was a oving as well as pretty wife.

Politics are reviving. More feeling is becomng manifest in relation to the October Election than we thought possible a few days ago. A deep feeling pervades the community in relation to the Temperance question, and party lines will be a good deal broken on that question. The public mind is impressed with the sentiment that a prohibitory liquor law is the only remedy for be fearful evils which now prevail, destroying heaters, levers, regenerators and air pipes. On the fearful evils which now prevail, destroying the other hand, there have been retained the the peace of so many families. Who has not suffered, and who may not suffer? All are in dan ger. This feeling will lead thousands to vote for
