To the Readers of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

PUBLIC ATTENTION is respectfully invited to the following truths, as forth in relation to one of the most important remedies of modern times:

DETHOLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN TONIC.—I need say no more than to refer you to the great remedy was brought before the public, by the Agent of the Proprietors, in this city. The great powers to heal, have, since then, become fully appreciated by the community, and it is now known that the longer it is tried the more wonderful will the great virtues of this Tonic appear. Try it, and be for the sole purpose of making money by it, but for the good it will do you. Try it after all other Nostrums have been forgotten. The Petroleum it is naturally derived from, and is the basis of the virtue of the Tonic. Try it, and you will find that we write truth. Those who have been afflicted to deceive those who may consult our word or put confidence in what we say. Try it, and be not deceived by any thing that promises relief from disease. A story not to be believed, that will not carry with it the deepest of guile or humbugging some of them. Now, reader, if you are suffering from disease, and are convinced that the truth in relation to our remedy should be told, we will say that it is a preparation far exceeding any single article in the materia medica. It is a combination of the most valuable medicines in our own and neighborhood, bear ample testimony to its virtues. And, also, the case of a gentleman in Beaver county, Dr. Rogers, who had been for a number of years totally blind, but is restored to his sight. See circular. Certificates that will astonish are to be had of the above Agent, who will take pleasure in showing them to the afflicted or their friends.

Others may say about their medicines, but we say that ours is the best. Those who have been afflicted with long and lingering diseases, and have become discouraged, are willing to award it due praise and unconditional commendation. All will be compelled to acknowledge that the Petroleum is the greatest Tonic ever discovered. Depot for sale, wholesale and retail, at 57 Fifth street. ALEXANDER A. McDONALD, Agent.

Fifteen Dollars Only

FOR A BEAUTIFUL HOMESTEAD, AT the village of ROSEVILLE, Allegheny county. The location—EIGHTY FARMS, worth over $13,000; 2,050 BUILDING LOTS, worth over $30,000; one hundred subscribers on the FIRST DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1852. Large number of these are already engaged. Many of the lots are of rare beauty. Have been selling from 500 to 600 per week. Will increase from five to ten times its present cost. Fresh subscriber on the first day of every month by 100 feet, lying together, or a Farm of from 2 to 20 acres. The Farms are for sale only three miles from the city. Title unquestionable. Within a few days past, Mr. Lott Wykoff sold 44 acres of land at East Liberty for $30,000. The same $66,000 has been offered for seventy-two acres, and refused by the owner, in the same neighborhood. Land has recently been sold for from $600 to $1,600 per acre, according to location. Persons who have been paying from 25 to 50 per cent. advance over the price for which these lots are now sold, should see this property before they buy elsewhere.

Real estate on all parts of Long Island is rapidly advancing in price, and is constantly being purchased for building and gardening purposes, and persons who have purchased a few days past, Mr. Lott Wykoff sold 44 acres of land at East New York
