INTERROGATORIES. - Candidates for the Logis lature will find in our paper this morning som interrogatories addressed to them on the Prohi-Liquor Law question The people will have an answer, and a direct answer to these ons, or they will not trust those who rense. The Candidate who equivocates, or healtates, or holds back, is doomed. Double-dealing will not be tolerated, now. Show your hands. tlemen. Let the people see how you stand the only really important question at issue. He that is not for us is sgainst us; and the candidate who refuses to answer the interrogatories will be taken to be, and treated as, an enemy of the Maine Law.

THE TEN HOUR LAW .- It is impossible for the Post to be just towards a political opponent.— Witness its attack on Dr. Carothers, yesterday, for his course on the Ten Hour Law. We give it

"Dr. M'Clintook is hown to be an unwaver-ing friend of the ten hour law of 1849. Dr. Carothers has proved himself to be its enemy, what ever professions he may make to the con-trary. The Gazette, a short time since, at ed a lame apology for Carothers for having la-bored hard in the Senate in the session of 1851, to procure a modification of the ten hour law, bored hard in the Senate in the session of 1801, to procure a modification of the ten hour law, which would have greatly impaired its efficacy. The Garette says Thomas Moffit, Eq., carried on to Harrisburgh the Petitiobs for the virtual repeal of the law. Mr. Moffit is precent as we write, and says it is utterly untrue. He says he never carried on any such petitions. Dr. Carothers alone presented petitions for the silteration of the law. Dr. Carothers reported the bill.—He made a speech in favor of the alteration.—He woted for it in all its stages, and was found asting all the time with the enemies of the ten hour law. Thomas H. Forsyth, our candidate for Canal Commissioner, made a speech against Dr. Carothers' bill, and it was defeated.

These, facts can be proved. The proofs are ready for publication, and will soon be laid be for the public."

Mr. Moffit may have learned to quibble by his close associations with the Post: "evil com manications corrupt good manners; but he can mot be permitted to escape through any such judget.

S. Prossly, sented by Dr. Carothers for a modification of the Ten Hour Law was sent on by the operatives, themselves, and Mr. Moffit went to Harrisburg as their friend to secure the success of the petitions. He co-operated with Dr. Carothers in E. M. Tindle, the endeavor to pass the modification saked by Wm. Stark, the operatives, and has since received from the John G. To remove all doubts, the friends of Temperance address to him, to-day, some few interposes address to him, to-day, some few interposes of being answered; and a refusal to answer will be taken as tantamount to a reply in the negative. He may make as many unspecific and unmeaning pledges to Temperance men, privately, as he pleases, but they are not the kind of birds that are caught with chaff. There are but two sides to this Maine Law question. Is Dr. McClintock in favor of a Prohibitory Liquor Law? Let him say Yes or No: and if he does not, the public will understand that he means what he dare not say.

It was added that when the Emperor was informed that the Porte hald modified the note of the Vienna conference before accepting it, he observed in a tone of much moderation, that he would willingly make concessions for the express purpose of meeting the wishes of the European Powers; but he would act humiliate himself in the eyes of the world, by submitting to propositions direct from the Soltan."
