HOME MATTERS.

COURT NEWS.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—Before the Hon. Judge Irwin.

The Court assembled at ten o'clock. The jury, in the Randolph case, who had been instructed to return a sealed verdict, entered Court, having agreed upon a verdict of "not guilty, in manner and form as he stands indicted."

Mr. Darragh asked the Court that Randolph might be discharged by proclamation.

Mr. Shaler objected, as he had several other indictments against the prisoner, of a similar nature.

About twelve o'clock the Grand Jury returned a true bill against Joseph Randolph, for forging naturalization papers, for one John Hutchinson, in 1852, who was at the time not entitled by law to obtain his papers.

The Court thereupon adjourned until three o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The counsel for defance being engaged in the Criminal Court, the trial of Randolph on the second charge was postponed, and the Court adjourned.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before the Hon. Judge M'Clure, President, and Associates Adams and Bogge.

The Bigamy case continued from the day previous, which, while we reported in yesterday's paper, occupied the attention of Court most of the morning. The jury found the prisoner guilty, in manner and form as indicted. His Honor, Judge McClure, then sentenced the prisoner to serve a term of imprisonment of eighteen months in the Penitentiary.

At the conclusion of this case, William Duff was arraigned for the murder of John Laughlin on the 25th of last September, in Mifflin township, Allegheny county.

An hour was occupied in the formation of the jury. Hon. Cornelius Darragh, and District Attorney Flanigen appeared for the Commonwealth, the latter of whom opened the case to the jury, Colonel Black and Christopher Magee, Esq., appeared for the prisoner.

Coroner Lowry was sworn and testified to holding an inquest upon the body of the deceased. Identified the knife with which the wounds were inflicted; received it from the hands of the deceased, on the day of the inquest, and had held possession ever since, until within a day or two.

Dr. D. A. Penny, sworn—Found wound on the left side chest, entering the chest between the sixth and seventh ribs, penetrating the left ventricle of the heart. Wound sufficient to produce death.

Dr. Wilson, testified to the same purport as the above.

Alex. Laughlin sworn—Knew deceased and Duff; saw them at the mouth of Finney's Run on the 24th of September; they came to shoot for a gun; I was measuring shots when Duff said to me, "let us shoot for five cents;" stood up a board and shot; deceased, Hineman, Duff and I was shot; was measuring shots when Duff said it was Hineman's money; I told Duff to hold on until we would measure it before he would say it was Hineman's money; John Laughlin said it was Alexander Laughlin's money; Duff said again it was Hineman's money; John Laughlin said he would either have his money or a fight; Duff spoke to him again, but I could not hear what he said; John Laughlin then struck and stripped off his neck handkerchief and vest, he came forward but did not touch him at that time. I told John to hold on, we did not want a mess here, and he did as I told him; he went back and said he could whip any one of them, and told them to come out, he came forward and kicked him, Duff, on the ch'eek, but not very hard; you could just notice where he kicked him on his face. Duff was on his knukers, but then rose up his feet they each struck, and think Laughlin struck Duff about the head; Duff struck Laughlin about the short ribs; John was going to follow him, when I caught him and held him. I held John and Duff came walking up slow, while I was holding John. I told Mr. Duff to stand back, we wanted no quarrelling here; when I found Duff was going to strike Laughlin, I let him go; when Duff struck, Laughlin caught him by the knife. That struck was in the short ribs; saw no knife at the time the blow was given, but saw a knife afterwards which was bloody, and also the hand in which he held the knife was bloody. Laughlin then called out that he was out, but I thought that he was out about the legs; Laughlin said that he was out and showed the place that he was out. There was a general fight, and I went to separate the rest; did not know Duff had any thing after he had cut Laughlin. Duff was sitting on his hunkers watching where I was measuring the shots when Laughlin kicked him; don't know of any previous quarrel between Duff and Laughlin; they had been drinking.

In the afternoon, Charles Wallace, Alexander Laughlin, James Laughlin, James Hineman and other witnesses were examined, and corroborated the above testimony; while Duff was on his hunkers deceased kicked him twice, and knocked over a tank into the run.

The defence called two witnesses only, who testified the fatal cut was made in self defence.

Col. Black addressed the jury in defence, and urged an acquittal on the ground that as Laughlin first struck Duff and then kicked him, and as the deceased was a large man, and the prisoner a small man, Duff acted entirely on the defence.

Mr. Darragh for the Commonwealth, closed in a very forcible and logical speech.

Judge McClure charged the jury at some length on the several degrees of manslaughter. The jury retired about five o'clock and had not returned a verdict at the time of adjournment.

POLICE REPORTS.

HELD TO BAIL.—Alderman Parkinson held a young man named Harrison to bail yesterday, charged with whipping a child of Peter Boogher, the complainant.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Charles White made oath and informa tion yesterday against Samuel Upcraft, for assa ult and battery. Alderman Parkinson, before wh om the suit was laid, held the defendant to bail.

SENT TO JAIL.—Alderman Parkinson committed Andrew Gable to jail y esterday, for beating his wife.

TRAVER AND CONVERSION.—Harriet Fisher was before Alderman Lewis, y esterday, on a charge of refusing to return $44, which had been left in her possession by the w omen cutrix, Emma Howell. Not being able to give s ecurity, she was committed to jail to answer the charge.

SEDUCTION.—Alderman Lowis issued a w arrant yesterday upon the oath and information of Sarah Jane Barnes, a girl of fifteen, for the arrest of a man named Harvey Gibson, for seduction.

BIGAMY.—William Buchanan was lodged in jail on oath and information of W. J. Reid, before Alderman M'Masters, yesterday, to await trial on a charge of Bigamy.

HORSE STEALING.—Mayor Park committed William Kune, yesterday, for horse stealing.

RIVER ITEMS.—The dry weather continues, with no indications of rain. The river is down to a less than two feet stage, and is still receding.

The Magnolia withdrew from the Wheeling trade yesterday, and took her departure for Cincinnati, where she is to be sold. We understand, to a Cincinnati company. The price is reported at $10,000. She is a new boat, having first been brought out at the beginning of this summer, and has been running steadily ever since, in the Wheeling trade.

The Exchange has gone on the ways for repairs; the Capt. Morgan takes her place in the Wheeling trade.

The Latrobe has also gone on the ways for repairs.

The Louisville Courier, in alluding to the Consolidated Line between this city and Louisville, says:

"The Union Line consists of seven boats, unequaled on the Western Waters for size, speed, and accommodations. The Pittsburgh Packet Line numbers nine or ten boats, all of them of the largest size, and of immense power, and great speed. This city will be the grand centre of the fleet—the turning point, from which all the boats radiate, and we congratulate our city on the great increase of trade the new arrangement will bring to it."

This is quite a change of tone. Before the Consolidation, our boats were called nothing but "tubs;" now they are equal to the best.

JOHN MCFADEN SOLD.—The steamer John McFaden was sold at Cincinnati on Saturday, for the Tennessee river trade, for the sum of $12,000. She arrived here last night, and will be placed immediately in the trade.—Louisville Courier.

RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY.—Mayor Riddle committed a man named William Peak, for receiving stolen metal from boys, knowing it to be stolen.

DANGEROUS.—A crazy man was perambulating the streets of Allegheny yesterday afternoon, chasing all the boys he met with. He ran on elderly lady, who was too fleshy get to out of his road quick enough, a very heavy blow on that account. He was arrested and put in the tombs for safe keeping by one of the Allegheny police.

The large sale of new books, paper, &c., will be continued this and to morrow evenings at Davis's auction rooms. We would recommend all to embrace this opportunity to purchase (at low prices) choice works, from the best American and English publishers.

SYNOD OF PITTSBURGH.—The Synod of Pittsburgh met yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian Church, (Dr. Swift's) Allegheny city.

The day was occupied in preparatory business —appointing standing committees reading the minutes of the last Synod and preparing an order of business.

The annual sermon was delivered last evening in Dr. Swift's Church. A sermon will be delivered also this evening, in the same place.

MAIL ROBBERY.—The Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court, have before them a bill against a man named Andrew Sweasy, for robbing the mail in Beaver county. Sweasy is lying in jail in Ohio, at the present time, awaiting a trial on two charges of burglary. He was one of the confederates in the ruffianly attack upon Mr. Ferguson, near New Brighton, some weeks ago, the particulars of which were given in the Gazette, at the time. He is a hardened criminal, and has hitherto been very successful in his villainies, though at present he stands an excellent chance of receiving his deserts.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of J. Doulan charged, before Alderman McMaster, with assault and battery, by Michal Coffee.

A correspondent relates the following circumstances which occurred very recently at New Orleans:

He went thither in his ship from Liverpool with eleven black sailors. By the laws of the State he was required to give $600 bonds that he would take them out of the State. This legal requirement was fulfilled on his part; but, under the United States Laws, he also had to pay the usual hospital money at the Custom House for each of these men. Two of them afterwards were taken ill, and though each had a bona fide protection granted at the Custom House in Boston, the Collector refused to admit them to the United States Mauine Hospital, because they were not recognised as American citizens. The Deputy Collector at New Orleans told our correspondent that their orders were to collect hospital money on black sailors, but not admit them to the Hospital. Application in the presence of a witness was twice made, ineffectually, to this end.

We call on the Secretary of the Treasury for some explanation of this matter. It carries assignment with it. Our Government should not require pay for a possible boon and then refuse to give it. Such conduct is simply dishonest. What says the Secretary?—N. Y. Tribune

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

BALTIMORE & OHIO ROAD.—The Baltimore Sun, in its money article, says: There is quite a panic in the market, in regard to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and the stock was left yesterday from $4 to $5 below the Board, making a decline of about $10 within a week. At the annual meeting of the stockholders, yesterday, the report was not ready, and left the public to various rumors and stay-ments were afloat in the street which served to depress the stock. It is unfavorable, the exact condition of the finances of the Company is the important point upon which information is wanted, especially as to the expenses as compared with the earnings, and with the hope of getting this definitely the report will be anxiously looked for.

The gross revenue for the last six months, as we have before stated was about $1,210,000—a little over $200,000 each month. During the same period the gross expenses there was found to be but $150,000 profit out of the $1,200,000. This unprecedentedly enlarged, on account of the incompletenes of the road, and the want of previous preparation for business upon its opening to Wheeling, and by the increase of wages to the men occasioned by strikes, etc. For the future, the expenses of the annual repairs of the road will not be in the proportion heretofore, and in addition to the amount to be saved by not having to renew the first outlays for certain important matters, a permanent saving will be effected by not employing in raising the current expenditures. This will be absolutely necessary, if the plan of the road in a condition affording a reasonable prospect of paying. The Baltimore & Ohio road, however, are said to be in the road department, the road being in excellent order for the proper ridince, repair shops, water and fuel stations, etc., are ample, and the facilities for transportation for the 200 miles west of Cumberland, when opened in January, but to the time of the first trains, the following have now been put in excellent order, and stations, fuel, water, repair shops, engine houses, water stations, etc., have been built, and the road is now in good condition, it is said. The grading, masonry, bridges, excepting of other heavy and expensive work remains to be done by Messrs. Latrobe & Co., and Mr. Ford, to say nothing of the laying of the necessary double track.

The stock of the road left off weak, and after the Board, we heard that it was offered at 85—no sales—and the stockholders, holding from 1500 to 2000 shares, and able to carry it, refusing to buy.

The aggregate Imports of the first two weeks of this month were $1,165,000, against $3,245,000, for the same period of last year, showing a falling off in favor of the latter, exclusive of specie, $1,515,360, against $2,965,24, and for the last six weeks, $2,455,000, against $4,210,000, showing a decrease of $2,050,920, or nearly 60 ₱ cent. over last year. The exports of specie were, thus far, this year, are $5,000,000 less than the same period last year.

We are authorized by Mr. Corning to state that the per. agreement for the relation of the Hudson River Railroad, copied from a Troy paper, is without a particle of foundation. The arrangement was the invention of a Tuyian from beginning to end, and no such assignment as has been made, or intended, and no ground given for such a rumor excepting the negotiation for the purchase of a second mortgage, the Bonds issued under which have been taken principally in Albany.—N. Y. Trib.

THE HOG MARKET.—We heard of as few as of about 6000 head during the week, deliverable from the 10th to the 25th of November, at $4.75@5.00. The latter figure being the highest that was offered, yesterday.

CHESTNUTS—are arriving in small quantities; sales, yesterday, of 60 bus. to the trade, at $2.00.
