Advertisements ordered for three months, or for the season, chargeable at intermediate rates.

Advertisements ordered for a specified number of insertions, and not ordered out, will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly.

Notices of marriages and deaths are inserted gratuitously, and are copied into the Weekly Gazette.

Advertisements not marked on the copy for a specified number of insertions, will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly.

The Daily and Weekly Gazettes are strictly limited to their own immediate business; and all advertisements for the benefit of other persons, or of all establishments not immediately connected with their own business, and all classes of advertisements in regard to sales, purchases, or other matters of private interest, whether the profit is to accrue to the Proprietors of the Gazettes or to others, will be charged at the usual rates. For all such transient advertising, bills will be separately rendered, and promptly payment is desired.

All advertisements, and other matters for insertion, are to be sent, by mail or otherwise, before 10 o'clock, A. M., to ensure attention that day. Yearly advertisers are entitled to have one square changed every week, but to be allowed a greater change, must pay for such change extra. Transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.

Marriage notices to be charged 50 cents.

Death notices inserted without charge, unless accompanied by funeral invitations or obituary notices, and when so accompanied, to be paid for.

Religious advertisings, and all others sending communications, or requiring attention to call attention to Fairs, Soirees, Concerts, or any public entertainments, whether any profit is to accrue or not, to pay for such communications, or for admittance—all notices of private meetings of societies, and all notices of public meetings, to promote enterprises, calculated or intended to promote individual interest, may only be inserted by paying for the same as for advertisements. All communications to be inserted in the Gazettes must be addressed to the Editors, post paid, or they will not be attended to.

All letters on business connected with this office must be post paid, or they will not be taken from the Post Office. Letters containing remittances may be sent at our risk.

Advertisements will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly Gazette three times for the price charged for two insertions in the Daily Gazette, and in the Weekly Gazette four times for the price charged for three insertions in the Daily Gazette.

Orders to discontinue advertisements must be given in writing, or they will be continued until forbid.

All transient advertisements must be paid in advance.

RATES OF DISCOUNT.
