the street and hands to the work, as our districts are very large, and by sub-division could be much better attended to.

And now we would once more appeal to the liberality of our community, feeling condient that if the existence and plan of our Association were more generally known and properly understood, we should not have the usual difficulty in procuring the adequate faults.

As the winter easeen advances, our minds are generally student faults.

As the winter easeen advances, our minds are generally student faults.

As the winter easeen advances, our minds are generally silled with anticipations of long evenings rendered delightful by social intercourse, entertaining books, lectures, concerts and many other innocent, and profundle colopuments: let not these pleasing expectations, however, entirely banish the remembrance of these who are not colly denied such intrivity, but even the absolute such that is a substitute of life. Let us think of widowed mothers, and orphan children, now gazing with terrible anxiety into a gloomy four, which dried with terrible anxiety into a gloomy four, which dried the place of the contract of the company of the relation of ladies and gentlemen of Beaver, called the "Potter litous," under the management of the discount of the country, and of this city. The music was and clear, frostly.

CANAL LOAT BORBERIES -- Mr. B. N. Park Okyal Poar Borrenze-Mr. E. N. Parks, one of the proprietors of a line of canal boats running between this city and Cirevaland, appeared before, Alderman Steele, yesterday, and made information against James Wilson, Captain of the canal boat "Pearl," and George Clark, a hand, for opening and abstracting parts of the contients of boxes of goods confided to their care, while on the trip to Claveland, between Beaver and New Cestle, in this State. From one box $40 worth of goods were parked. of goods were taken; from the others the amoun was not specified. Warrants were placed in the was not specified. Warrants were placed in the haste of High Constable Hague, who immediately arrested Clark, and telegraphed to the proper authorities in Cleyeland, who arrested Wilson and placed him in confinement, where he now lies awaiting the requisition of the Governor of this State. The proper papers were forwarded by Hague to Governor Sigler for the wasted by Hague to Governor Sigler for the requisition, which will probably be here in a confinement, where he had been confined by Hague to Governor Sigler for the wasted by Hague to Governor Sigler for the requisition, which will probably be here in a confinemation of the confinemation of the confinemation of the confinemation of the confinematic of the confinemation of the confinemation of the confinematic of the confinemation of the confinemation of the confinematic of the confinemation of the confinemation of the confinemation of the confinematic of the confinemation of the confinem

THE CANAL.—The transportation companies of this oily are making proparations for the cold weather by withdrawing their basts, and tying them up for the winter. The business, during the present month, so far, has been very small. The water in the caust will be drawn of by Christones; if the mild weather continues protably not before New Year's day.

Mr. John Orr, the Supervisor of the Western Division of the Ganal, we understand, intends to make completes and thorough repairs of the section of the canal under his charge. The lock will be repaired, obstacles in the bed of the canal removed, and walls, where accessary, erected during the coming winter. during the coming winter.

The "Constraiot" Cases.—Absalom Morris appeared before Aiderman Buckmasier yesterday for examination on the charge of conspiracy preferred against him and others, but no processoutor appearing, the case was postponed until Tuesday afternoon for a hearing.
