FOR HAYOR OF PITTEBURGH, FERDINAND E. VOLZ.

OGALITIONS .- The "Adamantines," who now Occupy a position of apparent hostility to the President, make it a special charge against the administration that it has coalesced with those who were Free sellers in 1848. It is an unparionable sin, in the eyes of these pure pat to have any association or intercourse with the Washington Sentinel, the National Organ of the Hards," in replying to the assaults of the "Un-Len" upon it says:

isa' upon it, says:

"What can the special champions of the administration expect to accomplish by the course thay are pursuing? Do they expect to strengthem the administration by denocencing its best friends? Do they expect to strengthen the democratic party by insisting on the doctrine of implict obedience? If so, they reason from principles that we do not understand. The Southern rights men cannot be analgumented with the free soilers. The attempt to preduce such a combination will be followed by a disreputable failure, for it will abstor the democratic party."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. The session opened most auspiciously for the dministration. The executive party in the Jours elected its candidates for Speaker, Clerk. and minor offices, apparently without a struggle they suppressed all murmurs of discontent, and ulctly laid the complaints of the disaffected ander the table. But the triumph proves to have been partial and deceptive. Opposition to the administration was far from having been rushed out. To-day, Beverly Tucker, of Virgiais, was elected Printer to the Senate, by a acmbination of Whige and discontented, or, as some say, rebellious Democrats, over Gen.
