THE MATOBALTY .- But one day of labor is left. Whitever is to be done, therefore, towards mful Whig rally to-morrow, demands be done to day. Are our friends organized in all the wards? Have they got working commit tees? Are they ready for an active, determined effort to secure the election of their candidates? If not, they have no time to loso.

The friends of Mr. Pettigrew have not sornpled at any measure promising success to their They first induced Joe Barker to take the field, for the purpose of diverting Protestant votes ; they next attempted to draw out an independent candidate, but could not make the call loud enough; and now they have made an adjanct of Freesoilism, to bring out Mr. Graig as a Free Soil candidate. That gentloman accepts, but ignores freesollism altogether ; he runs as a sort of volunteer Antimasonic can Protestantism and Antimasonry are not issues this election. The former is in no possible danger from the election of Mr. Vols. and the does not enter into the contest in any shape or form. But if Protestantiam were in danger, it could not be benefitted by voting for a trusulant demogogue like Barker; it sinks into atter contempt when associated with one who antly sets decency, truth and propriety at defiance. Catholicism desires nothing better than the opportunity of identifying Protestantism with such creatures as Basker ; and no true testant will yield them the opportunity.

The Whigs have a candidate in every way malified as a man, and eminently worthy of pub e confidence. To abandon him for the purpose of running after lack-o'-lanters candidates would be the very mainess of folly. The contest is between Vols and Pettigrew : and every Whig vote withheld from Volx but contributes to. Pettigrew's success.

the principal. We do not see how this arrangement can be dispensed with. The city cannot de clearly entitled to a portion, yearly, of the sum they have advanced towards the construction of the buildings. Their sole motive in assisting the city to build them was to promote the put nience and remove a public eye-sore. But one or two have any interest whatever in property in the immediate neighborhood; the res ve given theirg money at much less interest than they could otherwise command for it; and they are entitled to be repaid at the earliest day very small sum goes to the sinking fund.

$16,000; and it is not fair to compel the Batch-they did not they would have no castem. In this ers to pay this sum in two years. To this the state of affairs it seems uskind to inflict upon answer is, first, that while the mere building of supied by the butchers, may have cost but $16,-000, the building opposite cost a great deal more, and the lots on which both stand are worth nearly $150,000. These are items altogether gnored in the osiculations now floating about; but why, we cannot see. The city could realize generally, make it their endeavor to reader this fit, so tight, indeed, that his buckskin at least $150,000 for the bare ground on which the market houses stand; and it is but just to make that, in addition to the cost of the build ings, the basis of the revenue to be derived thereat poor interest upon it. And secondly, the Butchers do not pay $8,000 annual rent. The whole rent derived or derivable from both buildings is $8,000; but of this sum the vegetable dealers and hucksters pay over $2,000, leaving between five and six thousand dellars to borne by the butchers; and we venture to say that there is not an equal number of men in the city, in any other business, who are as well acnodated for an equal sum.

It is proposed as a means of escaping from the alleged high rents of the market house, to build a new one. The lot on which it is proposed build it cannot be bad for less than $80,000 ; and a building cannot be put up for less than $20,000 more. Here is a basis of $100,000 to begin on, the interest on which would be $6,000 por aunum. To this add taxes, gas, expenses of cleaning, watching, repairing. to, and we have a total of at least ER mon year-just the smount now paid for the Diamond farket House. How much would the butchers notwithstanding his denunciations.
