BY TELEGRAPH. CONGRESSIONAL WASHINGTON CITY, JAN. 11, SENATE.--MF. Cass delivered a reply to Mr. Clayton's speech last spring. In the course of his remarks he said, I will embody the principal of European non-interretation in American affairs in solemanCongressional act, and I will adhere to it and support it come what may. I desire the ex-clusion of European power and influence from all portions of the western continent not actually held as colonies. As to the existing colonies they will follow peaceably and in good time. The friends of this measure have not been seeking its accomplishment in vain--it will come. It is idea-tion the tails of Legislation. The cleavation of the the Halls of Legislation. The cleavation of the Eastern is yot to constitute our proudest claims to the respect of mankind. DEATH BY DROWNING .- A child named Welch DEATH BY DROWNISG.—A child named Welch Sproul was drowned, yesterday, by falling into a runit filled with water caused by the bursting of the water pipe. Some scoundrel had; the night pre-viously, thrown away the grating. Mr. Sproul, yesterday, covored the rault with a board, when some one removed that, also. While he was absent ordering a wooden covering of suitable dimensions, the deceased, a child four years of age, fell through and was drowned. Coroner Lowry, held an inquest upon the body.
