Resolved. That this meeting with the highest appreciation of all that is due to our sisters New York and Olio, and with a sincere desire to maintain friendly intercourse with them on just and equitable grounds, nevertheless submit that such corporations, the creatures of their laws, demand too much of Pennsylvania, when they essay to extend their roads through our territory, not only without, but in despite of Pennsylvania (Pennsylvania and applications). As a material consequence there are solved to sharp the statements to the prejudice of the people and authorities of Erie, to which the extansive currency has been given in and out of the State, as this meeting verily believes on the authority of retainers and servants of the Railroad companies, writing ostensibly as the regalar correspondents of various journals both in the East and West.

The latest accounts are of a character to leave me the estimation of the public mind secretly any hope that the Late will accept the last proposition of the Western powers and this view of the maintain friendly intercourse with them on just that the Late will accept the last proposition of the Western powers and this view of the matter is almost universally entertained at Consequence there are almost unin
