Correspondence of the Daily Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 14, 1854.

IN SENATE.—Mr. Price reported from Committee the bill to regulate the sale of liquors in Philadelphia.

A few bills were read, among them one by Mr. Hoge, to establish a ferry over the Allegheny river, in President township, Venango county.

Mr. Buckalew, a supplement to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company.

The Prohibitory Liquor bill was then taken up in order, the 8th section, relative to the right of search, still pending.

Some further amendments were submitted and adopted; when the vote was finally taken on the section as amended, and it was negatived—yeas 16 nays 16, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Barnes, Darsie, Evans, Ferguson, Frick, Hamilton, B. D. Hamlin, E. W. Hamlin, Hoge, Jamison, Kunkel, M'Farland, Piatt, Skinner, Slifer.—16.

A great deal of feeling was manifested at the result of this vote, the friends of the bill declaring that it was now worthless, and expressing a perfect indifference with regard to it in its present shape.

Mr. Slifer moved to postpone it to an indefinite day; and on this motion a long and very animated debate ensued, in which Messrs. Slifer, Kunkel, Darsie, M'Clintock, Cresswell, Buckalew, Quiggle, Hamilton, Crabb, Evans and Hamlin, of Wayne, participated.

The motion was finally agreed to, and the bill was laid over to an indefinite day.

ABBOT'S NAPOLEON.—The New York Tribune holds the following just language in regard to this reprehensible work, which has so long disgraced Harper's Magazine:

Of the worthlessness utter and unredeemed, of this clerical romance, we presume no further evidence is needed. It is in fact a rehash of the togus Memoirs and Recollections wherewith every Frenchman who basked in the sunshine of the Napoleonic dynasty, personal regard, with several who only pretend to have done so, have inundated us glorifying themselves and turn an honest(?) penny throughout the last thirty or forty years. The only novelty in this case appears to be that, whereas the originals were generally content to varnish over one or another of the despot's crimes, leaving out such as only ostrich digestion could swallow, our Reverend redactor swallows the whole, and turns out Napoleon as a meek, self-sacrificing saint, who had no enjoying for dominion, no stomach for slaughter, and only fought because the wicked aristocrats wouldn't let him alone!

The question naturally arises—is the American public justified in supporting a Magazine which gives currency and circulation to a work so untrue, so atrocious and dangerous, as the Rev. Abbot's Napoleon? But for the circulation and credit given to it by the character and immense circulation of Harper's Magazine, it would have remained as so much trash to lumber up Bookseller's shelves. Is it right to thrust such works before the public in such a form?

THE JEWELL CASE.—The course pursued by Mr. Hendricks, Senator from Schuylkill, in his remarks on the Jewell case, was in honorable contrast with that of the carping lawyers in the Senate who could see nothing but error in Judge McClure's charge. We extract a paragraph or two of his remarks:

It was a blow aimed at the judiciary of the Commonwealth, and if successful, would strike down the moral, as well as the legal power of the judiciary, so that the people would no longer rely upon judges and juries; but every unsophisticated attorney in an important case would be encouraged to appeal to the Legislature to exercise the powers of a high court of error, never contemplated by the Constitution, and in direct violation of its provisions. In support of this position, he quoted 3 Harris, 20; 1 New Hampshire Reports, 199; 1 Jones, 494; 4 Harris, 266; Constitution of Pennsylvania; Purdon 12 Section 5; U. S. Digest, vol. 1, 565; 3 Harris, 112. He had read the printed report of the charge of Judge McClure, and from its careful perusal was convinced, that taking it as a whole, there was nothing in it but sound law; but he was also satisfied that it was not reported as delivered by the Judge. It was evident that the court room was crowded to excess at the time; all were in a state of excitement, and under these circumstances, the reporter was ten fold more likely to misrepresent the Judge, than the Judge to misrepresent the law.

Exceptions had been taken by the Senator from Clinton [Mr. Quiggle] to that part of the charge relating to the law and facts. Mr. H. read from the charge of Judge Gibson, in the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Mosier and Harman, 4 Barr, 266 an 271, to show that his charge in these cases was in terms as strong as was the charge of Judge McClure in this case, and yet the propriety in these charges had never been questioned by Bench or Bar. There was nothing in the facts of this case before the Senate, to show that the prisoner could have been convicted, irrespective of the Judge's charge, of anything below murder in the first degree.—There was nothing to show that the killing was not willful and within the meaning of the law, murder in the first degree. Mr. H. then quoted Lewis' Criminal Law, page 382, 393, in opposition to the question assumed by the Senator from Clinton—as to the time of deliberation necessary constitute murder in the first degree.

Indigestion and Liver Complaint Cured

BY KIER'S PETROLEUM.—Read the following letter from Mr. O. Dickerson, a Missionary in Oregon:

MR. S. M. KIER—Dear Sir:—Myself and wife having been greatly benefitted by the use of your Petroleum, I wish to have you send me a box or two more bottles. Mr. Lane, our United States Consul General Minister in this place, and several of my brothers have been afflicted with Indigestion and an inaction of the liver, the same of myself and wife, before taking your Petroleum. FOR SICK HEADACHE, it took several bottles—two or three each—about a year and a half ago, and since that time have enjoyed as good health for years as we have since that time had any. I have also given a most beneficial fullness of the stomach which so distresses the dyspeptic sufferer, and which I have found of late since that time. My wife was also relieved from a chronic disease of the liver, which had been of several years standing, by the use of your Petroleum.

A Great Cure by Dr. Keyser's Pectoral SYRUP.—I live in Peebles Township, Allegheny County—I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued for eight whole months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated, until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP, which I did; and after I had taken one bottle, I was entirely free from coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what has done in my case. JOHN G. LITTLE, Peebles Tp.
