PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

A Walk in the Arctic Regions.

Dr. Kane thus sketches a morning's walk in the regions of ice:—

"Now let us start out upon a walk, clothed in well fashioned Arctic costume. The thermometer is, say 25 deg. not lower, and the wind, blowing a royal breeze, but gently. Close the lips for the first minute or two, and admit the air suspiciously through nostril and mustache. Presently, you breathe in a dry, pungent, but gracious and agreeable atmosphere. The beard, eyebrows, eyelashes, and the downey pubescence of the ears acquire a delicate white, and perfectly unreloping cover of venerable hoar-frost. The mustache and under lip form pendulous beads of dangling ice. Put out your tongue, and it instantly freezes to this ice crusting, and a rapid effort and some hand aid will be required to liberate it. The less you talk, the better.—Your chin has a trick of freezing to your upper jaw by the lating aid of your beard; even my eyes have often been so glued; so to show that a wink may be unsafe. As you walk on, you find that the iron-work of your gun begins to penetrate through two coats of woolen nippers, with a sensation like hot water. But, you have been supposing your back to the wind; and if you are a good Arcticised subject, a warm glow has already been followed by a profuse sweat.

"Now turn about and face the wind; what a change! how the atmospheres are wafted off! how penetratingly the cold trickles down your neck, and fit at your pockets! Whew! a packlife here before, like Bob Sawyer's apple, "unpleasantly warm" in the breeches pocket, has changed to something as cold as ice and hot as fire; make your way back to the ship! I was once caught three miles off with a freshening wind, and at one time feared that I would hardly see the brig again. Morton, who accompanied me, had his cheeks frozen, and I felt that lethergic numbness mentioned in story books.—I will tell you what this feels like, for I have been twice "cooled out." Sleepiness is not the sensation. Have you ever received the shocks of a magneto-electric machine, and had the peculiar benumbing sensation of "can't let go," extending up to your elbow-joints? Deprive this of its paroxysmal character; subdue, but diffuse it over every part of the system, and you have the so called pleasurable feelings of incipient freezing. It seems even to extend to your brain. Its interia is augmented; every thing about you seems of a ponderous sort; and the whole amount of pleasure is in gratifying the disposition to remain at rest, and spare yourself an encounter with these lantent resistances."

This is, I suppose, the pleasurable sleepiness of the story books."

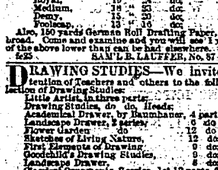
HOLLAND BITTERS



BOERHAVE'S ELECTRO-CHEMICAL AROMA.

GENUINE HOLLAND BITTERS.

FROM LOUIS A. ISRAELS, Chemist and Pharmacist, of Amsterdam, the only Manufacturer. A purely Vegetable Compound, prepared on strictly Galenic principles, after the manner of the celebrated Dutch Physicians of the 16th century. Hence of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States and Australia, and its universal celebration in our Father Land scattered here and there over the face of this mighty ocean country.

I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues are well known to

THE INHABITANTS OF HOLLAND.

Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Headache, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Gout, Nervousness, Debility, Lowness of Spirits, Want of Energy, Loss of Memory, Impaired Sight and Memory, Pain and Weakness in the Back, Pain in the head, and all diseases arising from a disordered state of the STOMACH, THE LIVER OR STOMACH.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been inspired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of distilling. Perhaps a small teaspoonful in a little water, will at once rectify to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, relaxing the stomach, and giving it tone, thus making new health and vigor into the system.

In all cases of Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, and the many complaints incident to children, a dose or two of the above is sufficient to relieve the worst cases.

Mr. Beni. Page, Jr.—Dear Sir: My sincere thanks are due to the friend recommending your Holland Bitters. MEDICAL.

TO THE PUBLIC.

MOST IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT;

RETIREMENT OF PROF. JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D

From the Philadelphia Medical College.

A NEW ERA IN THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE!

Popular Medicine for the first time sanctioned by the HIGHEST AUTHORITY IN THE PROFESSION!

THE undersigned have the pleasure of informing the public that they have made arrangements with the eminent Professor JAMES McCLINTOCK M. D., of Philadelphia, known for more than a quarter of a century past as one of the greatest Practitioners and Teachers of Medicine and Surgery in this country or in Europe, for the purchase of his recipes, and the preparation of a series of FAMILY MEDICINES therefrom, which will be put up in a cheap, and popular form, adapted for general use, and suited to the most prevalent diseases. These remedies embrace some of the most valuable discoveries and combinations ever known for the cure of disease. They are the fruits of the most profound investigation, the wid est research, and the amplest unequaled experience of one of the first physicians of the age. Each remedy is especially adapted to some particular form of disease, in accordance with the highest principles of modern medical science. Each of these remedies have been tried, improved, and finally perfected, in the course of a long, active and highly successful practice, not only in Philadelphia, but throughout many distant sections of the country to which his great reputation has called him. Their nature and effects are known and approved of by hundreds of regular physicians who have been his students and seen their beneficial results in Dr. McClintock's own hands, while they were under his tuition, in the Colleges of Philadelphia, Castle Son, Pittsfield, and elsewhere.

The following are the FOLLOWING CERTIFICATE:

This is to certify that I have placed in the hands of Messrs. A. Cushman & Co., New York, the recipes of my "Family Medicine," with my full authority to prepare and offer them for popular use. They are such as I have been in the habit of recommending and prescribing for many years, and their composition is well known to hundreds of regular physicians, who have been my students, and who are many of them now practising with distinguished success in all parts of the country. My indocements for this step are numerous: one of the most urgent is, that the demand for my remedies has become so large, through private report of their success, as to make their preparation too great a draft upon my time; another is, the repeated solicitations of my friends and patients, in the belief that the general introduction of my remedies would be in many respects a public benefit; and finally, in securing the cooperation of Messrs. Alexander Cushman, who is a thoroughly educated Chemist and practical Apothecary of many Years experience, whereby I am enabled to assure the public that they will be supplied with the best possible and perfect form, regardless of expense.

JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D., Late Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in the Philadelphia College of Medicine and Acting Professor of Surgery in the Pennsylvania College of Medicine, Physician to the Philadelphia Hospital, Blockley; late member of the National Medical Association; member of the Philadelphia Medical Society; member of the Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia; formerly President and Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in Castleton Medical College, Vermont and also, late Professor of Anatomy and Physiology in Berkshire Medical Institution, Pittsfield, Mass., &c. &c.

We need scarcely remind the intelligent public of the great necessity which exists for the introduction of a class of good and reliable popular medicines which may be confidently adopted into family use and depended on at all times in the hour of need. Such are the legitimate productions of Science, Study and Experience. No argument is needed to prove the immense superiority of such a class of remedies over the dangerous compounds that are daily puffed into notoriety by ignorant and unscrupulous men, for the purpose of enriching themselves at the expense of the lives and health of their fellow beings. We trust confidently in the good sense of the community to support us in this effort to extirpate the present evil of Quackery, by giving a careful perusal to the following list, which embraces the first twelve remedies of the series, and which comprises some of the most valuable specifics ever discovered for the several complaints enumerated. For a more full description of our remedies see the large pamphlets, one of which is given with the seal of the first medical authority of the day, by obtaining and giving a trial to such of these medicines as are adapted to the case. We call especial attention to the first in the list, namely the Pectoral Syrup, which is truly entitled to the
