Be why is this? The Trustee system is in use in all Pro of the country apart from the Romish church why does it work so hadly in the Panalichmohi and tyrannical control of the Catholic Priesth nate up to the Heaven-daring despot who neuro dier is not more subject to the commands of the Czar, than is a Roman ecclesiastic to his superition and church discipline have taught them, But it should not be forgotten that West Point should become impatient of the restraints which introduces into it a democratic element. The "Catholic" further says:

We presume the reason why the Bishops let the Trinity Congregation get along with their Trustee system, is because they cannot kelp if Trustee system, is because they cannot kelp in The "Catholic" admits that efforts were made t abrogate the charter, without success. Charters are legal rights in America, beyond the power would have been ended long ago. The spirit of liberty would have been effectually crushed or of it. But look at the remark of the "Catholic. that the Bishops "do not permit" any mor Churches to be organized on the Trustee plan Docs not such a bold assumption of unlimited power sound a little strange in a country where t is the hoast that the People rule?

The editor of the "Catholic" says we are "bigot." This is a matter of opinion. He adheres to a religious organization which denounce as heretics, and fit subjects of eternal punishment regardless of their moral character or religiou wellef, all who do not obtain the priestly offices o o look with abhorrence, if not with hatred, and as worthy imprisonment, fines and death, upon a who will not acknowledge the supremacy of the Pope, and those consecrated through him! Is there no bigotry in this? Our religion is of a fer more charitable character. We rejoice in a faith which holds all who "fear God and work right-courness," as brothers, and as accepted of God, as brothers, and as accepted of whether Catholic or Protestant. Which is the

Whether a vote will be referred to the important point whether a vote will be exampled. The proposition of the important point whether a vote will be ever taken I would not rashly assert.

In a few days after this silly vaunt appeared, another Richmond paper, the Whig, gave the statistics of ignorance in Virginia, compiled from the census, showing that while in New England, among the Yankees, the proportion of those who cannot read or write is 1 to 409, in Virginia it is 1 to 11! Here the fact which we have so often reverted to, that a system has been adopted of taking all the property of the Catholic church out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the made of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch out of the charch out of the hands of the laity, and placing it in the hands of the charch of the charch out of the charch ou lirection. Correspondence of the Dally Pittsburgh Gazette. HARRISHURG, April 21, 1854.
In the House last night the bill authorizing the transfer of the rights and franchises of the Pitts burgh and Eric Railroad Company was taken up, and was discussed till a late hour.

and was discussed till a late hour.

Mr. Whip thus laments over this degrading comparison:

Every decade exhibits a rapid and fearful increase of this mass of ignorance. In 1840, the number of the undettered in Virginia amounted to 60,000. In 1850, it exceeded 80,000. At this rate it will not require many centuries to exting guish all knowledge of letters in the State.

That is a pretty picture for the "impersonal tion of the well-born, well-educated, well-bred aristocrat" to look at! In New England, out of a population of 2,386,208, there are only of 2,286,208, there are only there are 75,868 adolts as ignorant of letters as the tens of thousands of slaves and the 11,615 free colored adults who are not included in this aggregate.

Virginia has but little reason to boast of the Virginia has but little reason to boast of the Virginia has but little reason to boast of the Porter addressed the Hones in oxylance.

PROM WASHINGTON.

Correspondence of the Dally Pittsburgh Gazetta.

Washington, April 21, 1855.

The House has been much troubled this week with West Point and the regular army, which are regular spring and winter complaints, recurring as certain at those seasons, as colds, catarrhs, and influenzas. The Senate is not afficieted by solicitude on cither topic, generally fillinger, Pistl. Sager—15.

In the House, in the morning, the bill to enable joint tenants and tenants in common and adjoining mineral lands to develope and manage the same; and the bill relative to counties and townships and county and township officers passed finally.

The resolutions proposing amendments to the Constitution were discussed at length and finally passed.

In the Afternoon, the School Bill was under consideration, and occupied the entire session, without coming to a vote. The bill was pending when the House adjourned.

EXCITED.—Our neighbors of the Sentinel are very excitable. The sight of a white cravat and black coat makes them hysterical. Rather than have such clerical protests as have been sent to Congress, it says:

"It would be far better that the whole of the insolent and canting hypocrites, with white cravats and black coats, and empty heads, and offensive manners; should be suppressed."

"Preachers," it says, "are proverbially ignorant of the practical shairs of men. Their time is spent, not among practical working men, but rant of the practical affairs of men. Their time is spent, not among practical working men, but amongst old women, with bad teeth and worse eyes, sho with to get to heaven by useless charities; by working to induct others to send flannel shirts to the Africans, whilst nakidness and want are at their own doors."

Wazing warm as it proceeds, our chivalric neighbor in the very teeth of this formidable relinue of "old women," proclaims war, war to the knife, without benefit of clergy. "If they preside in foreign themselves into nollities, we will med compelled by that mysterious social, professional mid class interest which is so well understood here at Washington, to appoint to all vacancies the sons of officers; so that ere this a proscription would have grown up as effectually excluding from the army all beyond the pale of this military aristocracy, as if the Constitution had, in express terms, confided the honors and duties to their hands.

The West Point Academy is certainly indistrictures with a love of contention for its own ask. I would rather trust the disciplined courses with a love of contention for its own asks. I would rather trust the disciplined course with a love of contention for its own asks. I would rather trust the disciplined courses and the hunter, whose easage thirst for blood so frequently seeks its gratification without cause of quarrel, caring for nothing, providing the fee be weak, and the powernment be wink its all that it ought to be, and it is no cessary that it should be efficiered by men of the individual of the fluster of the support of the Academy which excited the opposition of the fluste, was an item of ton or a fifteen thousand dollars for the construction of a building to be used as a riding school for the cases of the institution I am willing to believe that it is so. The dime consumed in discussing it has not been lost, and I believe has rather tended to strengthm than injure the Academy. It prevailed finally by only three majority. Col. Benton distinguished himself by his opposition to the riding school and the whole establishment; and Gol. Bissell was the most efficient among its friends.

Mr. H. M. Brackenridge, whose pro-slavery riwas have long randered his position in the Whig party an unnatural one, appears with a long communication for the Nebraska bill, and promises more—of course. Our Jocofoco friends on Fifth street may congratulate themselves on having acquired a correspondent who; if his communications were to be estimated by their length, would be invaliated by a line of the Mexican treaty. What is to be estimated by their length, would be invaliant to be estimated by their length, would be invaliant to the postponement. It was postponed from Tuesday night, for Canada.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Medical Testimony cannot be Contro-Medical Testimony cannot be Controversion-One of the most startling cares is narrated of Dr. McLang's Everminge by Dr. John Butter, of Trumbull Ox. Ohio. The case was that of a roung lady who had been very sick for civil years, and had committed a number of physiciana, who had breated it is one of Prolapsus Useri. Dr. Butter was then called in, and for a time believed with his predecessors that it was a case of Prolapsus. He was however, soon forced to the conclusion that, his patient was nuttering from worms, and, after much permassion prevailed upon her to take two does of Dr. McLane's Vermitars. This medicine had the effect of removing from her a countless number of the largest size. After she passed them, her health immediately returned. She is since married, and continues to enjoy excellent health? #2.Durchaser will be careful to ask for DR. MLANE'S CELERRATED VERNIFUGE, and take none else.
