"WILL JUDGE POLLOCK DECLINED! been going the rounds of the Democratic press few Whig presses which could have found better employment—we say, most emphatically, he will not. We are authorized to say, that Judge Por-Lock intends to stand firmly in the position in which the Whig Convention has placed him. He did not seek a nomination, but having accepted it, he intends to enter the canvass with spirit, and cannot be driven from the course, either by our enamies or professed friends. We can tell able to the our Demogratic opponents that Judge Pollock ory of the lamented ory of the lamented PROFESSOR BUTLER, will not decline, and they may make up their minds to a spirited effort on the part of the opponents of modern Locofoco-pro-slavery-Fill ister-Democracy, to elect him to the Guberna torial chair. As our distinguished townsman, Gen. Lanz MER's name has been mentioned by some indis-brect friends as a candidate fitting to take Judge Pollock's place, it is due to him to state that no such use of his name has been authorized by him, but is on the contrary exceedingly annoying; and we are further authorized by him to an nounce that he would, under no circumstances, agree to be substituted for Judge Pollook. He ecognizes in Judge Pollock not only a highly orable contestant for the nomination, but also a warm personal and political friend, and considers it both a duty and a pleasure to do all he can for his triumphant election.

To show the cordial relations existing between these gentlemen, and their agreement in the principles which they understand are involved in the contest, we have been permitted to publish the following correspon

Dram Sun—About leaving home, on an urgent business visit to the Eastern Cities, when the first intelligence of the action of the late Whig Convention wastelegraphed to this city, I prompt ly awalled myself of the lightning messenger to compay to that body my hearty endorsement of their selection of yourself as the Gubernatorial condidate of the party.

I am pleased, further, on perusal since of a full report of their proceedings, to discover that the Whig Convention, in making you the standard-bearer of the party in the approaching canvais, has not merely tendered you its highest compliments, but has placed you upon such a platform of principles, as will, I trust, enable you to rally, under the Old Whig Banner, the nable spirits who patriotically elevated it, and triumphantly bore it through the campaigns of '40 and '48.

On such a platform as this Convention has furnished, where is the true Pennsylvanian of any party, glorying in his birthright of freedom, solimitous for the preservation of his proud heristge, or in whose bosom a feeling of State pride has ever caused a quicker pulsation, who will not equally take his stand beside you?

In my humble judgment, sir, the Whig party of the North is, this day, stronger than at any former period. Occupying as she now does, the true Republican ground, the policy of the opposition is making her a unit, and is doing more to render her invacible than all the efforts of her most astute political tacticians could accomplish. there is nothing to be gained, in this respect, by his substitution for Judge Pollock. The latter presents as clear, a record in Congress as the opponent of slavery as Judge Wilmor. Nothing can be gained in this regard by his declination.

From the Cincinnati and Louisville papers of Saturday, we gather the following facts. The following notices appear in these papers: NOTICE.

Fillow "Blood Hounds:"
The most atrocious murder ever perpetrated in any community, was the killing of Mr. W. H. G. Butler, by Mat. F. Ward. It is a sacred and solemn duty due to the dead, and to the now blackened and dishonored name of Kentucky, from whence truth has fiel, and justice has been disregarded, to call a meeting of the "Wolfe Blood Hounds of Louisville," that we may give expressions to our feelings in reference to this most outrageous verdict of a Hardin county jury, and the man who dared stigmatize American citizens as

Come one, come all, and let Kentucky, give oridence that there are men that money cannot buy. Turn out fellow "Blood Hounds," and vindicate yourselves. There will be speeches and resolutions expressive of the just indignation of our citizens.

Your views of the platform of principles laid down by the Convention meet my cordial approval, and if our friends cannot sustain the principles embodied in the Resolutions, we may forever despair of of success. With united and harmonious action we must succeed. I will labor to deserve success.

With you, I regard the Nebraska movement as iniquitous, and as deserving the repudiation of every lover of freedom and his country. The people will prohounce in thunder tones its condemnation, and Presidential aspirants will hear and temble. Hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you before the close of the campaign,

WASHINGTON, April 29. In case Mr. M'Candless should be disappoint ed in his reasonable expectations of the Chilian mission, I would suggest to him a new opening. I hear that Solon Borland, U. S. Minister to Cer tral America, has resigned, or sent home letters announcing the alarming purpose of precipitating himself once more upon this unhappy country. It is not known what can have induced Solon to form this resolution. He has won, it is true, a brilliant reputation by the negotiation in the incredibly short space of six months, of a commercial and Fillibustering treaty, which may be said to "knock the spots out" of all the diplo-matic achievements of these modern days. Met ternich, Talleyrand, Nesselrode and Webster must yield the palm to this Arkansas luminary, who has managed to compass by a few strokes of the pen, more than the combined statesmanship of England and America has been able to accom plish in six years, to wit: to dispose of and settle

One of the objects of the treaty is to PLATIKG CARDA IN JAIL.—Col. Buckner is out in a card denying that the witness Barlow, who testified to so much in the Ward trial, ever played cards in the county jail. He says the assertion is false from beginning to end, and furthermore promises to get the certificates of the Wards that the exturnkey, John Sherley, never played cards with them in his life, neither in jail or out. We have confidence in any statement of Col. Buckner's, since he is a gentleman and a christian. Nevertheless, he may be mistaken in this case, since he was not always in immediate attendance at the prison. Besides, Barlow seems to have a peculiar facuity of being present in places and at times when no one else is aware of his presence.
