First. I do sincerely, and firmly believe that a law probibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, except for sarramental, medicinal, mechanical and artistical purposes, would courage, and so far as I could, secure enforcement.

In conclusion permit me to add that it is my carnert desire that the cause of total abstinence shall be advanced, until the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage shall wholly case—until the sin and the shame, the sorrow and the sufferings they create, shall be realized no more; and in their stead the benefits of and the blessings ever attendant upon temperance be experienced, naknowledged, and enjoyed by everyman, woman and child in our State and Union.

Very Respectfully,

Your most humble
and obedient servant,

BENJ. RUSH BRADFORD.

Reply of the Free Soil Candidate for Clovery Reply of the Free Soil Candidate for Governor.

Mr. William Whitehead—Dear Sir.—I received your letter of the 27th, yesterday, and truly thank you, for the kind terms in which you allude to my nomination for the office of Governor by the Free Democratic Convention at Pittsburgh, as well as for the further friendly interest in my behalf manifested by your proffer of aid with my consent in submitting my name for nomination to the zamo office, to the Prohibitory Liquir Law Convention to meet at Harrisburg on the 7th of June. You are right with regard to my, view, of a Prohibitory Liquir Law Convention to meet at Harrisburg to the 7th of June. You are right with regard to my, view, of a Prohibitory Liquor Law. I am unequivocally in favor of it—I do not hesitate to say, that I regard it as the great measure indispensable to the full success of the Temperance movement, and that I shall on all proper coasions exercise whatever influence I may possess in favor of the passage of such a law.

The Pittsburgh Convention as you have seen, adopted several resolations, besides that on the subject of the traffic in intoxicating drink, and in order that my position may be rightly understood. I deem it necessary and proper for me to say that those resolutions each and all have my cordial consent.

MEXICO.—The revolutionary movements in Mexico are assuming a more formidable aspect. Cerallos is looked upon as the hational leader, and all who hate Santa Anna, and those appear to be a numerous and influential, portion of the Mexican nation, are rallying under the list leadership. Even in the capitol, during the late virumphal entry after his roturn from the south, satirical squibs were abundantly circulated a mong the populace, heaping opprobrium upon his head—painting his campaign in its pure colors, as one of humiliation and defeat; describing the triumphal arches as "Gaudine forks," and ridiculing his "MoSt Serene Highness" as "his most terrified highness." The victory over Alvere is still a matter of doubt. The commandante of the "rebels" at Acapulco claims that the success rests with his army. After pursuing the retreating troops of Santa Anna for some days, a detached portion of the division of the liberating army under Gen. Alvarez, came up with the enemy on the heights of the "Pinta de Peregrino," and after an engagement which lasted over three hours, and in which the artillery of the Government troops at length gave them the upper hand, the main body of the detachment of Alvarez arrived, and in the course of an hour and half, the rear guard of Santa Anna for each of the main body of the detachment of Alvarez arrived, and in the course of an hour and half, the rear guard of Santa Anna for core three hundred mules and horses, with success to be as well authenticated as Santa Anna's—Phill Ledger.
