We may therefore congratulate ourselves, as Pittsburghers, that, in any event, the railroad enterprises in which we are directly interested will be pushed forward, despite the monetary difficules lately encountered; and that every degree of improvement realised by the money market enlivens and encourages their prospects.

CHOLERA:-There were 30 deaths in Wheeling from the lat to the 15th of July, from Cholera. greatest mortality was between the 8th and 15th.

the number in that time reaching 25. The number of deaths in Chicago on the 12th was 38, of which 17 were from Cholern. Of the 21 remaining deaths from "other diseases," 9 were children under four years of age. It strikes us that the deaths from "other diseases" are very numerous for a city of the size of Chicago. On the 11th they numbered 22, on the 12th, 21, and seem to average 20a day. This, in a population of 01,000 is a very large proportion, being about 140 in a week, or one to every 460. The proportion in this city is about one to every 460. Is there not, in the anxiety of the Chicago authorities to keep down the number of deaths by Cholera, an overcrowding of the "other" department? The usual ratio of mortality cannot have been considered as the present returns indicate.

SUNDAY IN PARIS.—Mr. James Brooks, of the New York Express, gives the following sketch of Sunday in Paris.

Strange Paris. It is Sabbath,—and the workmen on a now building just opposite my hotel on the Boulevards, are at work as hard as ever! They waked me up at 6 A. M., counting brick, "uni," "deur," "trois," "etc.,—and they kept on counting and brick laying all the day. The Sabbath of Paris differs as yet only from a week bath of Paris differs as yet only from a week lay, in the more brillian; exhibition of equipages, and the greater devotion to pleasure. I reasoned a little on this subject with a French lady, who defended the custom with seminary to the sunday in Paris.

The call invites all who endorse these principles to attend the meetings, and so secure nomination of a Union county ticket. The Chronicle of yesterday says that "there re main's enough to keep the patriot alive to the Jacksonian adage, that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." We have been under the impression, perhaps a mirtaken one, that the adage quoted belongs to Jefferson. For the Dally Pittsburgh Gazette.

Mishus, Enitors.—Some months ago an ordinance passed the Councils of Pittsburgh and Allegteny to have the ordinances and proceedings of both cities published in the German language. The Councils in the latter city acted promptly, and elected Messrs. I. & W. Neeb, of the Free-and elected Messrs. L. & W. Acen, of the Free-dom's Friend, as their organ; in the former city, however, although the Select Council elected unanimously Messrs. Backofen & Bauer, of the Courier and Staats Zeitung, as printers of the ordinances and proceedings, in the Common Council it was laid on te table, and is there laying still. As the publishing of the laws is for the benefit of our German citizens, I would like to ree them published.

In New York the disease is evidently on the lady, who defended the custom with so much vol nercase. The Post, speaking of a visit to the ubility that her French, if not her logic, con-

The Post, speaking of a visit to the bospital on Thursday, says "the wards in the hospital were quite full, presenting a spectacle estimated in the district of the state of the Whigh series of your able paper, and like it well enough to become a permanent subscriber." Any Whigh who can value the Patriot as an "able paper," ought to leave the party as soon as he can get out of it.

The last Harrisburg Patriol, Gov. Bigler's organ, is devoted almost exclusively to the family quarrel with the Harrisburg Union. The bitler fend between the two democratic faction rages with anabated intensity.

The Union, it seems, charges upon Col. Forney that while he has made a fortune out of the offices conferred on him, he permits his sister to maintain herself, by working in a cotton factory in Lancaster. This is not very creditable to the brotherly feelings of Forney, and it may be surmised that the Union makes all it can out of the text thus afforded. The Patriol assays a reply, but while it succeeds in bestowing a column or wood "ituperation on the Union, it leaves Forney about where it found him. Fight away.
