rado returned to the station, and Mr. Burleigh again mounted a box and continued addressing them until the departure of the train. A delay was occasioned of half an hour, as the trains meet at this point, and the Western Express was behind time. As the train left, the crowd dispersed amidst cheers and shouts.

As we write, the bells are ringing for a meeting of the friends of the rescued will where the her proceedings in the case will be had. THE INDIAN TROUBLES IN TEXAS. - The details

The Indian Troubles in Texas.—The details of the late Texan news received at New Orleans, show that energetic measures are to be taken to put an end to the Indian difficulties on the West ern frontier. Gen. Persifier Smith, of the U.S. Army, with the approval and co-operation of the Governor of the State, has determined to call into service six troops of mounted volunteers.—They are to be mustered into the United States service for one year, unless sooner discharged and during the winter shall be stationed at Fort Scott andworth. In the Spring Gen. Smith will make two expeditions into the Indian country with these troops, and endeavor to inflict upon them such punishment as will ensure the tranquility of the border for the future. The hostile demonstrations of the Indians have lately so increased in frequency and boldness, and assumed, so, determined a character, of preconcerted warfare, as to render these measures of defence and punishment absolutely necessary.

The hostile demonstrations of the Indians have lately so increased in frequency and holdness, and assumed, as determined a character of preconcerted warfare, as to render these measures of defence and punishment absolutely necessary.

The Millerine Delucion is again spreading in many portions of the country, particularly at the northward, and camp-meetings of the poor yietims of this wretched fanaticism are becompared. It is sutonishing that the repeated explosions of this humbug, the miserable disappointment of its believers, and the impoverishment of its believers, and the impover said merchanical in the population of our country has become of so peculiar a cast that no delusion is so ally as not any further manifestations. But it seems that the one handle in the population of our country has become of so peculiar a cast that no delusion is so ally as not to find followers. True, these poor people lajure and the model of the support of the support of the model of the support of the company has been for some time past en journal than the model of the support of of the su

A HYMSTOGER HYMSTOGED.—The Cleveland Horate says that Gray of the Plain Dealer, was in a duced to subscribe $200,000 to the great Moonshine racific Pailroad of Walker & Co. It was not expected he would pay anything on his stock, and Mr. Walker has gone to Texas, and has taken up the offer of that State, which is thought to be one of the magnificent speculations of the day. He now announces that the stockholders in the Moonshine Company, who have paid up their installments, can come in and participate in the raca, and they are now very loud and very fiere in their defunctations of the entire scheme. But walker & Co., have got the benefit of the influence of these men, and, having secured their and, and they are now very loud and very fiere in their defunctations of the entire scheme. But walker & Co., have got the benefit of the influence of these men, and, having secured their and, in the first pitch, them off the beat with as mich at the patch of the content of the Company, which was accepted in the statue of liberty.—Friday last, Gen. Anthony handed in his resignation as President of the Company, which was accepted; whereupon G. P. Buckingham, Esq. of this city, was elected President in his stead.

This selection, we feel confident, will give universal satisfaction, not only to the stockholders of the Rad, but to the public generally. Mr. Buckingham's high character as a business mas and as an houset and honorable olitics, will at the content of the Company was the the covernment of the correct of the content
