HEARD FROM AT LAST .- His Excellency Wil-Ham Bigler, Governor of Pennsylvania for a few nonths yet to come, has been struggling for a long time either to hide his opinio ons on great lie questions, or to make them bear different called the Compromise measures. That adjust-ment Gor. Bigfer indorsed and defended before the people in the campaign of 1851, and the peo-ple rendered a verdict in his favor. The same principle precisely, was incorporated in the Ne-braska bill. He approved that principle in 1851, and he approved it in 1854. He had defended the Compromise measure, and he would defend the Nebraska bill, which was founded on the same great republican principle of self-government." The Governor's position on this question is now understood, and ex-Speaker Chase must, as best he can, get out of the dilemma in which he has involved himself. Gov. Bigler is for the Nebraska bill-that infamous measure condemned and repudiated by almost the entire North. The Anti-Nebraska Democrats of the Stateand they are neither few nor far between-have now no alternative before them. They cannot consistently support this man Bigler. He has conivocated, prevaricated, hesitated on this sub ject ever since it became an issue-now condemning it, anon praising it, and then anxiou deterging is, and a trainer high of a statement of the statement is and high periader of the most gravito indigutor and the available and the available a ent on it; and finally he has terminato keep a ted his own doubts and those of his party by The diplomacy of the government from 1845 to by the popular vote system, and we learn that the wildest scenes of violence prevailed at many the wild of the polls, particularly in the borough of Wash The Anti-Nebraska men of Washington county ought to be able to defeat this ticket easily. The nomination for Congress is one that was not fit to be made, and there will be but little to be hoped for from our Government when such men can creep into its high places. We hope, there-fore, to see a strong rally made in behalf of the we, to see a strong raily made in behalf of the shols-souled and excellent Jonathan Knight, and to have the pleasant task, after the election, of should be taken up where it was left off by Mr. to have the pleasant task, after the elect chronicling his success.
