That bill was attempted to be thrus down our throats upon the ridiculous plea of "popular sovereignty." He was the friend of "popular sovereignty;" but the principle of the Nebraska bill was a very mockery. The bells of a great city are tolled! The flags of the shipping are hung half mast! Thousands upon thousands of his fellow citizens assembled to hear his defence, who treat him to groans, hisses, and exclamations of contempt! This is his roward—or rather it his just and marited or housands of contempt. This is his reward-or rather it his just and erited punishment for his gross betrayal of the rights and wishes of his constituents. Was Benedict Arnold respected in England? A firstior is always despised, not less by those who reap the fruits of the treachery, than by those who are betrayed. Judas was spurned by the High Priests, when his services were no longer needed. Arnold lived and died a neglected, despised and heart-broken man in England. Rep Haren, Jan. 2, 1852.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erydpelas, which; it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was family induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haren. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrun of Rock Hose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I nerth at relief, and cured me of a disease from which I nerth at relief, and cured me of a disease from which I nerth at relief. stiend the Medical Uninque, or new marco. Mr. Accessing prescribed the Syrus of Rock Roce, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I nerry expected to recover.

A Reprieve.-We do not refer to a repriese from Capital Punishment. There is a slow torture from which a respite is equally desirable. We refer to Dropepejs—a word in which all the horrors of indigestion Dyspejis—a word in which all the horrors of indigestion are summed up. To the sufferer by this paisful and harmaning disease, we can hold out not only bright hope, but the certainty of immediate relief and permanent cure,—Thore is a tonic, ordial and alterative principle in Hoofhand's German Bitters, which feetitably arrests and changes the morbid action of the stomach and the secretive organs, removes the disease, and restores to health—Prepared by Dr. C.M.
