tour through the northern counties' does not appear to be a very productive one. The Montrose Register gives a detailed account of his speech at that place on the 29th ult. There was a large out of persons attracted by curiosity to hear the Governor define his position on the Nebraska tion, but there was no enthusiasm manifested; and so far an satisfying the anti-Nebraska was concerned, the speech was a signal fail-He avowed the same sentiments contained in his recent speech in Pulton county, amounting to a virtual endorsement of the Nebraska ity; but he begged like a pauper for the and was not an issue in our State election.

They might do as they pleased with regard to offices, but he implored them to vote for him! The Free Democrats, however, are not to be caught in any such trap this year. Three years ago they yielded to a similar appeal, and electchair until he made this National measure one of State character and subsequently lent the whole influence of his Administration through the Nebraska fraud. EXPLANATION.-We were mortified to find in the local column of Saturday's paper a paragraph stating the arrest of our worthy friend John McGill, on a criminal charge, in Allegheny city, There is such an extreme eagerness am local reporters to obtain "items," that such in musicion is grabbed at without stopping to intrue that a foolish charge of larceny had been who had a private purpose of revenge to gratify thereby; but it is equally true that Mr. McGill is native population and in the line of doing the thing charged sgainst him, and is a man who, by a long and unbiamlshed life of honesty and uprightness is entitled to the immunity of having his name kept out of the public prints when made the victim of an unfounded and vindictive prosecution. The state of the inhabitants of Chinaton in the ligence that the English and Russians had office, and all its respectability and intelligence, are thoroughly disgusted with the conduct of their Senator and consider him a disgrace to their city and stake. When he proposed to the Governor of Macon, though he cannot rouch an unfounded and vindictive prosecution. rumped up against Mr. McGill by an individual Hee to him it is due to state that there is no foundation whatever for the charge paraded against him, although that is not necessary with those who know him, and that he has commenced prosecution for perjury against the individual a prosecution for perjury against the management who, for sinister purposes, has become his accus-er. Doubtless proper justice will be meted out to the offender, and he will be punished as he deserves for the outrage of laying such a charge Moor of such a man as John McGill. V regret that our columns should have been used to girs publicity to the proceeding, and can only add that if we had seen the paragraph before publiestion it should not have appeared.

NATIONAL WASTEFULNESS .- Our government, as administered under democratic auspices, not only refuses to clear the snags out of the Westera rivers, but wantonly throws away the costly nstrumentalities prepared for their removal unistrations. The following from the St. Louis Republican affords considerable food for thought in this connection :

the AL Louis Republican affords considerable food for thought in this connection:

On Monday, as we said would be the case, the saurifice of the United States Snag Boats took place, and a great ascrifice it was. Two of them were sold, with all their tackel, apparel and furniture, and one of them brought $3,900 and the other $4,100. As we understand it, this included everything attached to the boats, and in this mainer they were transferred to Messrs. Eeds & Nelson, who are very honorable and worthy gentlemen. They get the boats for about $8,000 cash, or $4,000 cash, or $4,000 cash, or $4,000 cash. We have not time to go through the documents to see what has been lost by the government, but a hasty examination of the accounts shown us that, for four snag boats, the United States paid last year $144. [21] 25. These boats were built under the superintendence of Capi. Bussell, and two of them have now been said. The original cost of the two was about, $72,000, and now, thanks to President Pierce and a few old flunkies about Washington, this property has been sacrificed, and only tome eight thousand dollars will be paid into the Treasury under this proceeding. Where was the necessity for this sale, when the boots were wanted, when Congress had passed a bill authorizing the appropriation for the facal year, and nothing was interposed but the Executive vote? Was there ever such a squandering of property as the giving away of $72,000 for the paitity sum of $8,000?

We learn that our friends in Allegheny who have a controversy with the Ohio and Pennsyl.

We learn that our friends in Allegheny who have a controversy with the Ohio and Pennsylvania railroad do not regard the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of the Eric and North East road as affecting their position at all; they rather seem to think the decision favorable to them, and regard it as strengthening their ground of registance to the road. We shall not argue argue the matter with them, and are content to leave the ultimate settlement of the dispute to what.

ever tribunal they think proper to submit it. The Whig County Convention of Philadelphia has nominiated the following legislative ticket: For Sanator, William Moran; for Assemblymen, John J. Holmes; E. G. Waterhouse, J. Alexander Simpson, Nicholas Thorn, Charles Allegood, Geo. H. Moore, A. Schofield, Montgomery John son, Thomas C. Steel, Wm. D. Richards, S. H.

Free Democratic vote, on the ground that and unpardonable, has gone back thirty-four the Nebruska question was a National measure, years to violate another compromise, and to rob years to violate another compromise, and to rob the North of its only compensation for concessions abhorrent to the spirit of the people at that time, and only made for the sake of peace, and in the sacred name of Union. And while and in the sacred name of Union. And while the sacred name of Union and we know of nothing in our editorial position which should prevent our saying it—we share, and warmly share, the common feeling of s of Congress and candidates for other that time, and only made for the sake of peace, most cherished interests, this man has presumed lov. Bigler, and he was hardly warm in his in the Senate and elsewhere to defame the people of Chicago, the place of his pretended sesilence, to slander her clergy and most revered citizens as fanatics, incendiaries and traitors; and withal the man had become un alien to the leatified with the Nebraska movement as North, a Slaveholder and Southerner by resi-who are nearny pana for reasoning min, and are nearly pan who, because ignorant and priest ridden, are al-unost universally supporters of the pro-slavery of the protheir city and state. When he proposed to the Governor of Macon, though he cannot rough for the twentieth time by do livering his twentieth pro-slavery harangue, he should have been left to the custom house, postout of the public prints when made the victim of livering his wentieth pro-slavery harangue, he should have been left to the custom house, postin should have been left to the custom house, post office and the Irish rabble; but a meeting should have assembled at the same time in mother place to consider and condemn his course. Thus perfect freedom of speech would have been maintained, and all parties would have been maintained, and all parties would have had a fair chance. It is true that Douglass and his whole crew of pro-slavery agitators are the bitterest enemies of the right of speech, as they have enemies of the right of speech, as they have enemies of the right of speech, as they have enemies of the right of speech, as they have enemies of the right of speech, as they have to marty Lovejoy in the same state for attempting to exercise it, and had the precepts and the ced feet freedom of speech would have been mainpractice of his faction on the slavery question been followed, Mr. Douglass would not have been permitted to enter Chicago, much less to barangue the people and furnish new aliment to the excitement of public feeling. But this does not justify any application of mob law to them, and I consider the course of the anti-Douglass men in interrupting him at the late meeting as not only wrong in itself but as likely to produce an unfavorable re-action against them .. This popular though, I regret to say, disorder-

There are some cheering signs of the emanci-pation of our political literature from the shackles in which it has limped and stumbled for many years past. Putnam's monthly magazine, now nearly two years old and enjoying a large circulation, has entered its protest against the prostitution of the public mind. The leading article in the September number is a vigorous appeal to the nobler sentiments of the nation against the one base influence which now smothagainst the one page innuence which now smoth-cra every generous thought and every honorable impulse. This article is characterized in the following manner by the Montgomery (Alabams) Advertiser, a sheet which foams with indignation at assaults from other sources on the liberty ton at assaults from other cources on the liberty of speech and of the press:
"Puthmas Magazine-for the current month

of the party in this region harmonize beautifully.

Vermon Election.—The returns thus far indicate that Stephen Royce has been elected Governor. Ryland Fletcher, Licutenant Governor, and Henry M. Bates, State Treasurer—all by the people. They were the candidates of the Whig and anti-Nebraska parties.

James Meacham is elected to Congress in the let district, and Justin S. Morrill, and Alvah Sabin, probably, in the 2d and 3d. Mr. Morril is a-free-soiler. The other gentlemen are Whigs. All were candidates on the Union ticket.
