Reading Matter on each page of this Paper

Cheering.—The intelligence yesterday respecting the health of the city is very cheering. Of the deaths reported several belong properly to Sunday, and new cases were quite rare. The general opinion of physicians is that the epidemic is about at an end.

The Cholera.—We rejoice to announce that there is a most gratifying abatement in the number of deaths from Cholera in this city and vicinity. Its highest point was reached on Thursday last, since when the virulence of the pestilence has steadily declined. The causes for this abatement are doubtless various, and are such as lead us to hope for the speedy cessation of the disease among us. Death has removed a great number of persons of feeble constitutions and of those who were laboring under depressing diseases. The number of predisposed cases is thus lessened. The city has also in a great measure been purified, greater caution is observed in diet, warmer clothing is worn, and the premonitory symptoms are watched with greater carefulness. The panic has also in a great degree subsided, and our citizens have resolutely gone to work to ameliorate the calamity to the sick and bereaved, and to discharge actively the duties of humanity and christian kindness. The weather has also for the last two or three days been more pleasant and has doubtless had a good effect. All these causes together are gradually mitigating the horrors of the pestilence, and we trust removing it from among us.

We hope to have the heartfelt pleasure of announcing, in a day or two, that the disease no longer exists among us as an epidemic, and that strangers may visit us with impunity. We shall doubtless have sporadic cases until winter sets in, in, but we do not think the disease will exist as an epidemic more than a few days longer. Somewhat, however, will depend on the weather and a good deal upon the conduct of the people. If a prudent carefulness is laid aside and excesses indulged in, with unnecessary exposure to a sudden check of perspiration, and above all, if diarrhœas are neglected, the disease will still linger among us.

Yesterday, the number of deaths, at the time of closing this article, was reported at between twenty and thirty. Very few new cases were heard of.

Orphans.—One of the first cares of a benevolent and Christian community should be the proper maintenance and instruction of those who are left parentless—bequeathed by an inscrutable providence to the parentage of society at large. The epidemic, which we are now allowed to hope is drawing to a close, has left many helpless children in our midst without father or mother, whose little hands are raised imploringly, beseeching us to supply to them the watchfulness and care of which death has deprived them. We are not aware of the extent to which this prevails; but we have heard, individually, of several instances, and doubt not they are numerous. They ought to be hunted up and provided for; and one of the first measures demanding public attention is the raising of means to put in the hands of those who manage Orphan Asylums, to enable them to meet every case calling for their attention. Are there not Christian men enough in the city—men with hearts large enough and warm enough to institute a movement to this end? Somebody must do it, and let not one wait until another anticipates him. We will not believe that much urging is needed to give a start to such an enterprise; the bare suggestion of it should suffice.

Next to those who are left absolutely parentless, are those who have lost the fathers to whom they looked for bread, and are left, with almost helpless mothers, a charge upon the kindness of the world. These are many, and appeal loudly for aid. The refuge of an Orphan's Asylum is not needed for such so much as employment—for the mothers when they are able, and for the children when they are old enough. Individuals may do much for the benefit of such unfortunates; but some systematic effort is needed to have the work done thoroughly.

We make these suggestions in the hope of seeing something done at once. Humanity and Christianity cry out against delay. One of the distinguishing characteristics of true religion is to visit the widow and the fatherless in their affliction; and seldom has their affliction been greater than now.

The Post enumerates a few anti-slavery papers that have been compelled to take in sail on account of hard times, and augurs therefrom that the people are tired of agitation. If the Post had pushed its inquiries a little further it would have learned of the demise of some democratic Journals, also, which would have proved as much the other way. The latest instance that occurs to us is that of the administration organ in the city of New York, which lately came to an unprofitable end, and has left Gen. Pierce without an advocate in that great city. We might also mention the Bangor Mercury, a Maine paper which interfered on the Democratic side in the late election, but has since retired in mortification from the field, eschewing politics henceforth, altogether. The Columbus Statesman, also, the organ of Ohio locofocoism, has been compelled to advance its terms, admitting that it is at present a losing concern. We might enlarge on this topic considerably, to the edification of the Post; but will conclude with simply alluding to the Chicago Young America, a paper started to help Senator Douglass along, and which lately died a sickly death.

Dr. S. T. Charlton, of Harrisburg, sends us a prescription for the cure of cholera, which he says is orginal with him and which he avers has never failed. He is anxious to have it tried here; but as the cholera is so rapidly disappearing from our midst we think it advisable to withhold the publication of prescriptions. Dr. Charlton will be as glad as we are to know that there is but little further need of such things.

We ask attention to the advertisment in today's paper offering the lease of Jones' Ferry for sale. The time for receiving proposals has been extended to Nov. 1st.

Mr. Soule.—The departure of the American Minister from Madrid for France has led to sundry rumors as to his complicity with the rebellious movements in Spain, and his visit to Paris is regarded rather as a flight than as an ordinary act of travel. The Spanish ministry is said to be in possession of sufficient evidence to connect Mr. Soule with the efforts made to overturn the government; and, though not disposed to proceed openly against him, are prepared to make his longer stay in the country unpleasant.

These reports may all be true, or they may be exaggerations; but, as previous rumors were to the same effect, there seems some reason for putting at least partial faith in them. Unfortunately for Mr. Soule and the country he was sent to represent, there is nothing in his character as a man or a statesman to forbid the conclusions which the statements of the London and Paris press would seem to warrant.

The sole purpose of the Administration in selecting such a man for such a post, and the sole motive which actuated him in accepting it, was to accomplish the annexation of Cuba. This is the great achievement on which both General Pierce and the Minister to Spain have set their hearts; and as they are both steeped in political Jesuitism of the deepest dye, their creed is that the end justifies the means. The first move was to offer to purchase Cuba; but this failing, Mr. Soule has, in all probability, addressed himself to the task of overturning the government as the next most practicable move, should fillibusterism at home fail. If common fame be not an arrant liar, both Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Soule recommended our government to give every encouragement to the so-called republicans in Spain when it was understood that they might possibly oust the reigning dynasty, and the ten millions asked for by the President at the close of Congress was understood to be intended as an advance payment to them in consideration of the relinquishment of Cuba.

These developments are important to us as demonstrating the eagerness with which the administration labors to advance the interests of the slave power. The acquisition of Cuba is the darling measure of the South; and to accomplish it the President selects a man for Minister to Spain who stops not at degrading our national name in his zeal to obtain a questionable purpose. That we, as Republicans, should sympathize with struggling republicans in Europe is natural; and that we should also be anxious to aid them to the extent of our power, is not to be wondered at; but that our minister to a friendly nation should abuse his privileges by using them against the government to which he is accredited, not for the purpose of promoting republicanism, but to compass an end to which honest diplomacy had proven unequal, reflects dishonor upon both the individual and the nation whose name he tarnishes.

The New York Evening Post, a democratic paper, thus comments on the matter:

"If we must send abroad representatives of our country who cannot keep themselves from intermeddling with foreign politics, let them at least be men of sufficient sagacity not to be accomplices in conspiracies, which the appearance of a company of soldiers or a dozen police officers is enough to put down. Tavern conspiracies, rebellions brewed in an upper chamber of a second house by a dozen fellows who rush into the streets, raise a feeble hurrah, and are picked up and carried off by the police, are as little creditable to the American Minister who passes for their instigator, as the retailing of drams is to the importer of wines and brandies."

The Combination between the Railroads and Banks.—We learn from undoubted authority that the Express Companies are not permitted by the Indiana Railroads to carry to that State the notes of the State Stock Banks sent home for redemption. Any Express Company violating this rule will be refused all facilities on the Railroads in Indiana for the transaction of their extensive carrying business. A Broker in Pittsburgh or Cincinnati cannot thus use the ordinary and safe mode of sending home this wild cat currency for redemption, but is obliged to use the mails, or to send a special agent. The object of the arrangement is to force a circulation, to keep the money out and to prevent its return in such quantities as would compel those concerns to wind up. The broker finding it difficult to send this description of currency home is induced to pay it out, and thus keep it afloat, thus accomplishing the object designed by the arrangement between the banks and the Railroads.

No currency can be safe which is bolstered up by such means. The prudent plan is, therefore, for the people to refuse to receive it. This will soon drive it out of circulation. Our brokers could greatly facilitate this proper and strictly justifiable mode of retaliation, by announcing that after a certain day they will not receive it on deposit. It will then be driven home and stay there. We again warn our readers to beware of these Indiana State Stock Banks. A word to the wise is sufficient.

A Noticeable Fact.—The State ticket selected by the Whig Convention of New York contains two editors, Messrs. Raymond and Bowne, and never a lawyer! Mr. Clark, the candidate for Governor, is a Hardware Merchant, and Mr. Pitthugh, the candidate for Canal Commissioner, is a Miller. Heretofore lawyers have carried off the lion's share of the offices, and ambitious young men have been led into that profession as a stepping-stone to places in the government. A change is taking place, which will be manifestly better for the profession, and probably as well for the public welfare. We would by no means reject a fitting man because he was a lawyer, but, except for offices connected with the law, men in other pursuits in life should have an equal chance. The lawyers necessarily posses a monopoly of a most important and highly honorable branch of the Government, the Judiciary, and can well afford to share the remainder of the places of trust and emolument with their fellow citizens of other professions and employments. The editorial profession has hitherto been kept in the back ground, but is lately looking up, and none better deserves the confidence of the public. Lest we should be misunderstood, we beg leave to say, however, that we have no aspirations in that direction.

Where the Fault Lies.—We noticed in our last that the papers of Zanesville and the regions round about complained greatly of the delay of goods shipped on the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad for that region. Since then we have ascertained that the fault lies wholly at the door of the Sandusky, Mansfield and Newark Railroad. Goods are sent promptly to Mansfield, where they accumulate, owing to the inefficiency of the Mansfield and Newark road to do the business required of it. Cars loaded with goods have accumulated at Mansfield, to the great inconvenience and loss of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Company, and some goods have been suffered to lie on the platforms without shelter until they have been injured from this cause. Goods for Sandusky, and regions beyond are now being shipped by way of Cleveland, owing to the inefficiency of the Mansfield road. Great loss is thus inflicted on the stockholders of that road, as well as the inconvenience to the public. If the people of Newark, Zanesville, etc., do not receive their goods in due time, they will know hereafter where the fault lies.

We the other day corrected the Post in its misstatements about the New York Tribune; but the lesson, contrary to our hopes, has proved of little avail. The following is from that paper of yesterday:

The National Era was published daily in Washington City during the last winter. Being an Abolition paper, of course it abused the Administration roundly. It stopped in May or June, and acknowledged a loss of five thousand dollars.

The National Era was started as a daily last December, to be published during the session of Congress and no longer. It continued its existence until Congress adjourned in August, and if money was lost by it the publisher anticipated as much when he commenced it. None of the daily papers in Washington are profitable, so far as subscriptions are concerned. They are only kept alive by the patronage of the government, which was denied to the Era.

Cheltenham in Congress.—The clerical petition against the Nebraska bill having been so indecorously treated by Congress, has induced the people to rend the petitioners to the next Congress in place of their defamers. Mr. Meacham, of Vermont, just elected, is a clergyman, and so is Mr. Sabin, his colleague. Mr. Knowlton of Maine is a Baptist, and Mr. Milliken a Universalist clergyman.

Pierce Democracy.—The following case of official proscription is related by the Washington correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer:

A few days since Thomas Borland, a clerk in the office of the Adjutant General, received notice of his dismissal from office, over the signature of the Hon. Jefferson Davis. Accompanying this notification was a letter from the Adjutant General, informing the clerk that it had been shown to the satisfaction of the Department that he belonged to a "Know Nothing" Association, and had voted or attempted to vote for Mr. Towers, the candidate of that party for the Mayoralty of Washington. Upon this allegation Mr. Borland, who is a son of the late Minister to Central America, was dismissed from public service. His offence as thus officially admitted, was the exercise of his right of suffrage according to the dictates of his own judgment and conscience, and without previous consultation with his next official superior.

There is nothing more disgraceful and reprehensible than this tyranny of party, which thus seeks to destroy all independence of character and manliness of bearing, and surround government with a set of toadies and hypocrites. No man with a particle of self-respect can consent to take office under a government which requires such disgraceful sacrifices. Mr. Jefson Davis has shown himself to be a fit tool for a tyrant, and that if his power could extend far enough he would disfranchise every American citizen. There is nothing in the censorship of the press and the pressure upon public opinion in the most tyrannical government of Europe, which exceeds in turpitude such glaring examples as the present government of this boasted Republic furnishes. They are at war with the spirit of our institutions, and are calculated to sap the very foundations of public virtue, and to destroy all manliness and self-respect in the employees of government. Truly it is high time, when parties become thus shamefully proscriptive, that they should be overthrown.

Principles before Party.—The New York Evening Post, the organ of the Softs, has vindicated its consistency and attachment to principle in the following remarks on the action of the late Whig Convention of New York on the Nebraska bill:

That portion of them [the resolutions of the Whig Convention] which relates to the Nebraska act will command the hearty assent of an immense majority of the people of New York from Suffolk to Chautauque. It is no doubt true that hostility to Mr. Pierce's Administration has given a keener edge to their censure; but to what other cause it may be owing, we are rejoiced to meet with so full and faithful an expression of the public feeling, adopted in an assembly of citizens from every part of the State. The contrast which it forms to the pusillanimous mention of the Nebraska bill in the resolutions adopted at the late Democratic Convention in this State is a sad one for the Democratic party, and we allude to it with shame. Had the resentment felt by the people at the great wrong done to the North been expressed with half the completeness, half the manly energy, which we find in the Whig resolutions, the triumph of the Democratic candidates at the approaching election would, in the opinion of many, have been scarcely doubted.—In adopting the language of faint and timid disapproval, the Democratic Convention repudiates the support and co-operation of thousands of earnest-minded men, for the sake of securing the votes of a handful of office-holders and their friends, who would in no case have ventured to vote for any other nomination but that of the Convention.

When the whole press of the country shall rise above party, and fearlessly approve what is right and condemn what is wrong, regardless of party preferences, it will be equal to its high mission, and not before.

New Lisbon Fair.—This takes place on the 27th, 28th and 29th, inst.,—Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Persons desirous of visiting it will be supplied with tickets at the Federal Street Station of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad by paying one fare for the round trip. Visitors can stop either at Columbiana, Franklin, or Salem, where hacks will be in attendance. The exhibition will possess many attractions.

Flight of Robert Schuyler.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Robert Schuyler as a felon, and he has been diligently sought for. It is believed that he has fled to Europe.

The Valley Democrat, of Ligonier, Westmoreland county, expresses the opinion that John Covode, Esq., who has been nominated for Congress by the Whigs of that District, is no musician. He therefore will not be able to beat A. Drum, on the 2d Tuesday of October.—Union.

It does not require much musical talent to beat the drum; the ability to mark time being the main qualification. As the music of the second Tuesday of October will not be very melodious to democratic ears, any how, it makes but little difference whether Covode does the thing artistically or not—he will beat the Drum and make noise sufficient, we warrant.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Tape Worm cured by Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge.

NEW YORK, August 2, 1852.

A certain lady in this city testifies that after using Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, she passed a tape worm 20 inches long; and has no hesitation in recommending it to any person afflicted with worms; as in her opinion, it far excels every other remedy now in use. The name of the lady, and further particulars, can be learned by calling on Mrs. Hardie, Manhattan place, or E. L. Theall, Drug gist, corner of Rutger and Monroe sts.

☞Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else, as other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and from the sole proprietors,

Dr. Morse's Invigorating Elixir or CORDIAL.—If it is inquired now this great restorative is accomplishing such extraordinary cures, we can only reply that it is the Arabian bark that forms its cardinal ingredient as it has been blended by the Omnipotent Physician, a larger amount and greater varieties of curative properties than he heretofore been supposed to exist in a hundred different species of the pharmacopœia. A whole medicine chest of remedies, so to speak, seems to have been combined in this herb; and in the ELIXIR or CORDIAL we have their concentrated essence. It is the effect, however, not the cause with which we have to deal in the practical application of remedies. The victims of dyspepsia are cured, the nervous are relieved, the hypochondriac regains their active ity, the sufferers from head-ache are tormented no more the weak become vigorous, the tint of jaundice leaves the complexion of the bilious, the depressed in spirits become buoyant, the sick in almost every condition of disease derive immediate benefit from the use of Dr. Morse's invigorating Elixir or Cordial. These facts, supported by indisputable proof, are presented to the attention of Invalids, who can verify them by a single bottle of the medicine. The Cordial is put up highly concentrated, in pint bottles. Price three dollars per bottle, two for five dollars, six for twelve dollars.

Indigestion and Liver Complaint Cured

BY KIER'S PETROLEUM.—Read the following letter from Rev. O. Dickerson, a Missionary in Oregon:

Mr. S. M. Kier—Dear Sir:—Myself and wife having been greatly benefited by the use of your Petroleum, I wish to have you send me a box of two or three dozen bottles. I am the Congregational Minister in this place, and several of my people are afflicted with Dyspepsia and all kinds of the liver, the same of myself and wife, before taking your PETROLEUM, OR ROCK OIL. For several years two or three such—about a year and a half ago—but since we have used it we enjoyed as good health for years as we have since that time. I have taken a few bottles before now for the billiness of the stomach which so distresses the dyspeptic was relieved by the use of your Petroleum in a few time. My wife was also relieved from a chronic disease of the liver, which had been of several years standing, by the use of your Petroleum.

More Proof in favor of Myer's Frost Wort or Rock Rose.

To the Rock Rose Company:—

Messrs.—A Medicine under the name of Myers' Extract of Rock Rose, has recently found its way into this country, and from the newspaper account (or recommendation) I was induced to make a trial of its healing properties in the case of my wife, who had for years been laboring under a disease known by the name of Scrofula. Its prominent symptoms were open ulcers in the throat, enlarged parotid glands, diseased condition of the mucus membranes of the head, and to that extent many times she could not breathe except when the mouth was open, there being no passage through the nostrils, with many other painful symptoms that often attend this scourge of human happiness and life. I believe it is the opinion of the medical faculty generally, that this disease is the foundation of almost every form of Consumption that fall destroyer, that carries to the grave annually its tens of thousands. My wife has taken three bottles, and it has restored her to perfect health, healing all the ulcers reducing every gland to its original size, and removing from the lungs a difficult respiration, or breathing, which, at times, was painful. In my opinion, it is due to the medicine and its inventors, to say, at least in Scrofula there is no specific that can equal it. Yours, with esteem

A. B. L. Myers:—Dear Sir—I have suffered for a long time from Dyspepsia; and it gives me great pleasure to inform you that, after using one bottle of your Compound Extract of Rock Rose, I received so much benefit that I can cheerfully recommend it to any one thus afflicted, as being a valuable medicine, and the best I ever used.—Yours, truly,

SICK HEADACHE.

This certifies that one of my daughters has been subjected to periods of Sick Headache and Vomiting for some years. Some of the attacks were very severe, and were almost sure to follow extra exertion. Hearing of the beneficial effects of the "Rock Rose" upon others similarly afflicted, I was induced to purchase a bottle. From the commencement of using it, (several weeks since,) she has been free from this distressing complaint. Her general health has improved and is now good, and we attribute this desirable result to the properties imparted by a material Providence, in this valuable preparation.

The Germans have produced some very excellent remedies for various diseases. Among which may be specified "Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated Bitters," for sale by G. H. "We feel convinced, that in the use of the German Bitters the patient does not become debilitated, but constant in the strength and vigor to the frame—a fact worthy of consideration. These Bitters are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be administered under any circumstances. In the west, Hoofland's German Bitters are usually used by all persons with the most perfect safety. It would be well to commence with one tea-spoonful in the nervous system, to be increased to a wine glass full, and gradually to a proper judge, as age and wife, have united to recommending the German Bitters, and to the afflicted we cordially advise their use."

Palpitation of the Heart, Nervous Diseases, Liver Complaint, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Costiveness and Piles, are all relieved and cured in an incredible short space of time, by Carter's Spanish Mixture, the great tonic and purifier of the blood. It contains not a particle of Mercury, Opium or any noxious drug; is perfectly harmless, and has cured more than five hundred cases of disease.

We can only refer the reader to the certificates, a few of which may be found in another column, and all of which are detailed in full around the bottle. It is the greatest of all Spring and Fall Medicines, and possesses an influence over the blood truly remarkable.

M. Bally's Antidot and Lotion, celebrated throughout the land as the only reliable preparations ever invented for the cure of Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Piles, and Female Complaints.

The great success these extraordinary Medicines have always met with in curing the above complaints, has surpassed even the Proprietors themselves, saying nothing of the thousands of Testimonials in their favor, given voluntarily cured by their use. We would assure the public that they are not mere patent humbugs, compounded solely to sell, but are prepared by a thorough Chemist, with the most active and powerful remedies that can be obtained, and are intended to do good. But one trial is required to convince all that such is the fact.

They are put up in bottles, with full directions accompanying them, the Antidote at $1, and the Lotion at 50 cts. per bottle. One bottle lasts ten days. Many have been entirely cured in two or three days.

Invented by M. BALLY, Physician to the Hospital of Paris, and sole agent for the United States and Canadas, to whom all orders must be addressed. Principal Depot, 458 Broadway, corner Grand st., New York.
