VOLTAIRE'S DEATH.—The awful details of Voltaire's death are too well known to need repetition. The following authentic anecdote may be interesting:

Some years ago, an individual well known and highly respected in the religious world, narrated in my hearing the following incident. In early life, while with a college companion he was taking a tour on the continent, at Paris his friend was seized with an alarming illness. A physician of great celebrity was speedily summoned, who stated that the case was a critical one, and that much would depend upon a minute attention to his directions. As there was no one at hand upon whom they could place much reliance, he was requested to recommend some confidential and experienced nurse. He recommended one, but added, "You may think yourself happy, indeed, should you be able to secure her services; but she is so much in request among the higher circles here, that there is little chance of finding her disengaged." The narrator at once ordered his carriage, went to her residence, and much to his satisfaction, found her at home. He briefly stated his errand and requested her immediate attendance. But, before I consent to accompany you, permit me, sir," said she, "to ask you a single question: Is your friend a christian?"—"Yes," he replied, "he is indeed a christian, in the best and highest sense of the term; a man who lives in the fear of God. But I should like to know the reason of your inquiry?" "Sir," she answered, "I was the nurse that attended Voltaire in his last sickness, and for all the wealth of Europe I would never see another infidel die."

The undersigned, in accepting the proprietorship of Dr James McFarland's Family Medicines, would respectfully state to the public, that in his profession as Dispensing Chemist, for nearly fifteen years past, during which time he has been actively connected with the best pharmaceutical establishments in this country, he has had constant occasion to see and prepare the prescriptions of the most eminent physicians, among whom he would name Dr. Mott Dr. Parker, Dr. Francis, Dr. Cheesman, Dr. Reese, Dr. Whitaker, Dr. Rhoads, Dr. Hosack, Dr. Kissam, Drs. Pratt and Young, Dr. Beals, Dr. Green, and many others in the city of New York.

The experience thus acquired enables him to discriminate between the legitimate medicinal combinations of scientific skill, and as to secure a harmonious combination in union with their highest therapeutical effects, as the inaccurate mixtures of quackery and ignorance; wherein, for want of proper knowledge in combining them, the most ingredients may neutralize and destroy each other, the result in a substance highly injurious, and contrary to its intended design. It is with pleasure, therefore, that he testifies that the prescriptions of Dr. James McClintock are not only composed of the most valuable medicinal agents known to, and habitually employed by, our best practitioners in the treatment of the several diseases for which they are intended, but they are combined in such accurate proportions, in relation to their chemical and medicinal effects, as to secure the attainment of the utmost increase of their power and efficiency.

In conclusion, he will only add for himself, that he can refer with confidence to his past career, as his guarantee to the public that these great remedies in his hands will be faithfully prepared in strict accordance with the prescriptions of their distinguished originator.

MEDICAL.

TO THE PUBLIC.

MOST IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT;
RETIREMENT OF PROF. JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D
From the Philadelphia Medical College.
A NEW ERA IN THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE!
Popular Medicine for the first time sanctioned by the HIGHEST AUTHORITY IN THE PROFESSION!

THE undersigned have the pleasure of informing the public that they have made arrangements with the eminent Professor JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D., of Philadelphia, known for more than a quarter of a century past as one of the greatest Practitioners and Teachers of Medicine and Surgery in this country or in Europe, for the purchase of his recipes, and the preparation of a series of FAMILY MEDICINES therefrom, which will be put up in a cheap and tasteful form, adapted for general use, and suited to the most prevalent diseases. These remedies embrace some of the most valuable discoveries and combinations ever known for the cure of disease. They are the fruits of the most profound investigation, the wild ravages, and the utmost unequaled experience of one of the highest physicians of the age. Each remedy is especially adapted to some particular form of disease, in accordance with the highest principles of modern medical science. Each of these remedies have been tried, improved, and finally perfected, in the course of a long, active and highly successful practice, not only in Philadelphia, but throughout many distant sections of the country to which his great reputation has called him. Their nature and effect are known and approved of by hundreds of regular physicians who have been his students and seen their beneficial results in Dr. McClintock's own hands, while they were under his tuition, in the Colleges of Philadelphia, Castleton, Pittsfield, and elsewhere.

READ THE FOLLOWING CERTIFICATE:

This is to certify that I have placed in the hands of Messrs. A. Cushman & Co., New York, my recipes for my "Family Medicine," with my full authority to prepare and offer them for sale. They are such as I have been accustomed in the habit of recommending and prescribing for many years, and their composition is well known to hundreds of regular physicians, who have used them in their practice, and are many of them now practising with distinguished success in all parts of the country. My intention in forming this step is numerous as the most urgent is that the decided benefit I have realized has been confined to a few, and has report of their success, as to make their preparation too great a draft upon my time; another is, the repeated solicitations of my friends and patients, that I should place the general introduction of my remedies would be in many cases a public benefit. Therefore, I have, by the mutual operation of Mr. Alexander Cushman, who is a thoroughly educated Chemist and practical Apothecary of many years experience, whereby I am possessed of the assurance that they will be prepared in the BEST, PUREST and most perfect manner possible.

JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D., Late Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in the Philadelphia College of Medicine and Acting Professor of Midwifery, one of the Consulting Physicians of the Philadelphia Hospital, Blockley, late member of the Board of Health of Philadelphia, late member of the Philadelphia Medical Society, member of the Medico-Chirurgical Society of Philadelphia, late Vice President and Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in Castleton Medical College, Vermont, and also late Professor of Anatomy and Physiology in Berkshire Medical Institution, Pittsfield, Mass. &c. &c. &c.

We need scarcely remind the intelligent public of the great necessity, which exists for the introduction of a class of good and reliable popular medicines which may be confidently adopted into family use, and depended on as efficacy in the absence of a physician, as being the legitimate productions of Science, Study and Experience, of which there is needed to prove the numerous superiority of such a class of remedies over the dangerous compounds that are daily puffed into notice by ignorant and reckless men, solely for the purpose of enriching themselves, even at the risk of lives and health of their fellow beings. We trust send deadly to the grave, many of the community to support us in this effort to extirpate the great public evil of Quackery, by giving a needed portion to the best of our ability to introduce the first twelve remedies of the series, and which comprises some of the most valuable specifics ever discovered for the several complaints enumerated. If you or any of your friends are sufferers, one no time in procuring the aid of the first medical authority of the day. By purchasing and giving a trial to such of these medicines as are adapted to the case. We call especial attention to the first of the list as being most generally demanded, at this season namely, the
