The question recurs, will the members of the democratic party who are in carnest in their hosw Nothingism, vote for the democratic nominees on the Know Nothing ticket ? Can they do it? It is well known that this secret order places no one in nomination who ber ; this, according to general infor mation, is one of its essential rules, and is never departed from. The democratic nominees who and sworn to carry all its purposes into effect; nominees for County offices, including the can didates for Commissioner and Clerk of the Court were voted for in the Order, if not chosen ; and this demonstrates their connection with it. THE CANAL—We notice telegraphic despatch to in the press abroad to the effect that navigation on the canal is suspended in consequence of the inling of the Freeport Aqueduct. So far as the canal below the Aqueduct is concerned this is true; but we are pleased to learn that the transporters have arranged to convey freight over the Pennsylvania Railroad to and from a point at which both come together, some distance this side of Johnstown. Platforms are erected there, and freight will meet with no detention—The State will be a loser, inasmuch as so large a portion of the Canal will remain unemployed; but shippers will, we apprehend, find no cause of complaint.

The Commissioners of the State Sinking Fund are made a report of their operations, from which we learn that there has been paid and ex-

Will some democratic arithmeticias explain to us whether, taking these two opera tions together, the State Debt has been really reduced or not? The Governor and his friends t has, we shall be obliged for a demonstration thereof.

A DEFENSE of "The Eclipse of Faith," A DEFERSE Of "The Ecupse of Faith," by its author; being a rejoinder to Professor Newman's "Reply." Also, the "Reply" to "The Eclipse of Faith," by Francis William Newman; together with his chapter on the "Moral Perfection of Jesus," reprinted from the third edition of "Phases of Faith." Boston; Crosby, Nichels & Co.

This long title-page leaves nothing more to be raid concerning the character and ability of this work for the information of the reader who has kept up with the religious controversy in Engand in regard to the divinity of Christianity. To those who have not, we may say that the "Eclipse of Faith," of which this book is a defence, is a work of great vigor and power, designed to defend Christianity from the attacks of such semi-infidels as Nowman and Theodore Farker. It indirectly attacked the "Phases of Faith," a work of Newman's, who wrote the re-ply, which called out this defence. In this book
