THE CUBAN SLAVE TRADE.—It was stated in the English papers that the Spanish government have returned a negative answer to Lord Howden's demand that they should declare the slave trade to be piracy, and the reason alleged for their refusal to do so is the impossibility they feel of doing anything to add to the discontent which exists in Cuba—a declaration which is considered tantamount to saying that the slave trade must continue, because the Cuban proprietors require its continuance. The mortality of slaves in Cuba is said to be so great that in ten years the whole world be swept off were their numbers not replenished by constant supplies, and that, in fact, the continuous supply of fresh slaves forms an indispensable element of the prosperity which Cuba enjoys.

Fresh Stock of Nunns & Clark's Pianos.

H. KLEBER respectfully informs the public that he has just returned from the Eastern cities with the largest and most complete stock of PIANOS, ever brought to this city. They are from the celebrated factory of NUNNS & CLARK, N. Y., and are warranted, as fact in every respect, to be U. S. Pianos. He received the first class prize medals, both in this country and Europe, and they are considered, by the musical profession and public in general, as altogether unrivalled and unequalled. Every one will invariably be the same as charged at the factory, without addition. They range from $250 to $1,000. Also, a choice lot of UPRIGHTS well known and highly popular Pianos. Dunham's Pianos are among the first used in this city, and they have kept on a most creditable reputation so far as the superiority of tone, touch and durability.

The above lot comprises all styles and prices, and as every instrument offered for sale by the subscriber is carefully and thoroughly examined by him, he can, in all candor, guarantee to furnish purchasers with a good, substantial and fashionable Piano, and one fully equal to any in the market. Persons in want of a good Piano will find it to their interest to call and examine before buying elsewhere. HENRY KLEBER,

Sole Agent for Nunns & Clark's Pianos.

AMONG the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to relieve the burdens of life, and increase its enjoyment, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than the combination of Chemistry to the Healing Art.

That medicines, compounded on the principles of Chemical Science, have proved beyond a doubt, that not the least power, but has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease that have hitherto swept from our midst many thousands every year. Indeed, there is thousands, and thousands every year. Indeed, there is thousands, and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a remedy has at last been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the human frame. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use, but we would present the following—and refer for further enquiry to any of our citizens, of which the surest assurance to any desiring to furnish free, where none named, will always be pleased to furnish free, where in are full particulars, and indisputable proofs of these statements.

OFFICE OF TRANSPORTATION,
LAWRENCE RAILROAD, Nov. 15, 1853.

J. C. Ayer—Sir: My little son, 4 years old, has just recovered from a very severe attack of Croup, which confined him prostrated him a week or more, and every person that visited him pronounced him a dead child. He was attacked in the winter of 1850, for a CHEAP PECTORAL in Cayuga County, where he had a very severe attack of Bronchitis, with routine success. I was informed by a friend that your CHERRY PECTORAL was highly recommended to try it; we accordingly procured one bottle, and in the morning, and by 10 o'clock at night, I found a change for the better, and after three days' use, he was able to eat or drink without pain.

I am sure in the above named disease all are many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the throat and lungs, I believe it the best medicine extant. For all throat and lung affections, in children or adults, I consider you there the deepest gratitude, and confidence for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been with the angels.

Yours, with great respect,
D. B. WHITLOCK, Sup. Trans. L. R. R.

ROCK HILL, (SOMERSET CO.) N. J., July 21, 1852.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Since your medicine has become known here, it has a greater demand than any other. It is spoken of in terms of the highest praise by every one. Its effects are wonderful and almost unsurpassed. I have used it in my family for the cure of colds, coughs, and croup, and have found much for the good it has done. I am giving my customers the benefit of your discovery, and I feel gratified in being the means of conferring such benefits.

Please send me a further supply, and believe me,
Yours truly, PETER C. WHITLOCK.

P. S. I enclose you any number of certificates can be sent you if you wish it.

WILMER, C. W., June 20, 1852.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Sir: This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL in my family, for the past year, and it is my sincere belief that, should it have been in my power, it would have saved the life of one of my children. I therefore feel confidence in recommending it to the afflicted, as the best remedy I am acquainted with for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, and Consumption.

Yours, truly, C. W. ANDERSON, Attorney at Law.

WILLIAMSBURG, PA., Sept. 28, 1850.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—My Dear Sir: Your medicines are the purest and best I have ever used. I have used and prescribed your CHERRY PECTORAL in my practice, and find it invariably recommend it to the public as the best remedy for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, and Consumption.

Yours, truly, DR. C. G. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.; and sold by Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout this section.

MEDICAL.

TO THE PUBLIC.

MOST IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT:
RETIREMENT OF PROF. JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D.
From the Philadelphia Medical Gelly.
A NEW ERA IN THE HISTORY O F MEDICINE
HIGHEST AUTHORITY IN THE PROFESSION!

THE undersigned have the pleasure of informing the public that they have made arrangements with the eminent Professor JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D., of Philadelphia, who has been for more than a quarter of a century past as one of the greatest Practitioners and Teachers of Medicine and Surgery in this country or in Europe, for the purchase of his recipes, and the preparation of a series of FAMILY MEDICINES therefrom, which will be put up in a cheap and popular form, adapted for general use, and suited to the most prevalent diseases. These remedies embrace some of the most valuable discoveries and combinations ever known for the cure of disease. They are the fruits of the most profound investigation, the wild est research, and the ripest accumulated experience of one of the first physicians of the age. Each remedy is especially adapted to some particular form of disease, in accordance with the highest principles of modern medical science. Each of these remedies have been tried, improved, and finally perfected, in the presence of a large, active and highly educated audience, not only in Philadelphia, but throughout many distant sections of the country to which his services are called, and in which his name and fame are widely known and respected of the highest standing of regular physicians known and respected of the highest standing of regular physicians who have been his students and seen their beneficial results in Dr. McClintock's own hands, while in many cases he has left them in the charge of Philadelphia, Castle ton, Pittsfield, and other physicians.

R. H. PATTERSON.

READ THE FOLLOWING CERTIFICATE:

This is to certify that I have placed in the hands of Messrs. R. Patterson & Co., New York, the recipes of my friend, Dr. McClintock, for his celebrated remedies, known as "Family Medicine," with my full authority to prepare and sell them for publication. They are such as I have been in the habit of recommending and prescribing for many years, and their extraordinary success is well known to hundreds of regular physicians, who have been my students, and who in regular practice, are familiar with the distinguished success are many of them now practising with distinguished success in all parts of the country. My indorsements for this step are numerous—one of the most important is, that the demand for my remedies become so large, through personal and public report of their success, as to make their preparation too much a task upon my time; another is, the repeated solicitations of my friends and patients, in a body, to offer their services to the public, as I perceived it would be in many the general interest of the family, and in securing the regular operation of Mr. Alexander Chapman, who is a thoroughly educated Chemist and practical Apothecary of many years experience, whereby I am enabled to secure the public from the evils of quackery and imposition, and to secure the most perfect form, regardless of expense.

JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D. Late Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in the Philadelphia College of Medicine and Institute of Medicine, and one of the Consulting Physicians of the Philadelphia Hospitals, Physician to the Philadelphia Medical Society, Honorary late member of the Medical Society of Pennsylvania, of the Medico-Chirurgical Society, and of the Philadelphia Medical Society, Member of the Academy of Anatomy and Surgery in Castleton Medical College, Vermont, and Professor in Berkshire Medical Institution, Pittsfield, Mass., &c., &c., &c.

We need scarcely remind the intelligent public of the great experience, skill and ability of Dr. McClintock, as evinced in the introduction of a class of the most valuable popular medicines which may be compounded and prepared by any druggist, and which will thus be placed in the reach of the million. These remedies are the legitimate fruits of the profession, being the result of the highest and most successful practice of a physician, as being the legitimate fruits of the profession, being the result of the highest and most successful practice of a physician, as being the legitimate offspring of the Science, Study and Experience. No argument is needed to prove the immense superiority of such a chart to the purpose of enriching themselves at the expense of the lives and health of their fellow beings. We trust confidently in the good sense of the community to support us in our efforts to stop the great public evil of Quackery, and to this end we solicit a careful perusal to the following list of highly valuable remedies at the same time we call the attention of our friends to the most valuable specifics ever discovered to cure the several complaints enumerated. If you or any of your friends are suffering, can no time in postponing for the use of the Life Medicines, for every day's delay is a day lost, and perhaps a life sacrificed. Let all such read and profit by the following list of remedies and their uses, and be restored to health and happiness.

I.—PECTORAL SYRUP.
