through the streets. They inform us that the liquor seiling establishments are unstation extends. There alosed as far as their observation extends. There no outward appearance of their being open .---If there is some secret way of obtaining admismission, of which the editor of the Journal is informed, it is his duty to lay information before the Mayor, when no doubt the law will be inforced. Having held the position of Mayor himself, he knows that an entrance cannot be gnforced, to ascertain , whether liquor is sold or not. The most the Mayor can do is to enforce the autardobservancio di the law, and to punish zuch riolations, of ji as come under his own cogni-riolations, of ji as come under his own cogni-rance or that of his police, or when information is made before him. If it is notrious that the liquor shops are oren on Sunday, even to pass-cers-by to Church, and if it is notorious to the order-loving people of Pittaburgh that liquor with impunity, all of which the Journal asarts, the the duble could be the sum of t outward observance of the law, and to punish such violations, of it as come under his own cogniwith impunity, all of which the Journal asserts, it is passing strange that there has not been some action taken upon it by the "church goers" and "order loving citizens," and that the editor of the Journal has not once referred to it during the whole year, nor made one information, in order to put a stop to so great an evil. Mr. Volz informs us that he does not permit.
