Il that is left of the distinctive Whig party, wer not invited to attend nor permitted to participate in the caucus which nominated Mr. Strong for Speaker. They were thrust aside and spurned because not needed. In the Senate, however, was otherwise. There, the new and secret party is unable to elect its Speaker without Whig air and so the cancus was called in the name of the Whig party. As only three or four Whig members of the Senate were not Know Nothings, and as it was known beforehand that the Order had fixed on Mr. Hendricks as the nominee, Mr Price and Mr. Darsie refused to attend, not wishing to be bound by such a nomination. Their offers to support another unquestioned Whig were refused, and they were required to take Rendricks or nothing. Besides being objectiona-ble to them as a member of an organization which is in some measure hostile to the Whig party.

the career of Mr. Hendricks as a Senator has been of a kind to insure the mark of confidence in volved in voting for him for Speaker. We think our Senator and his colleague from Philadelphia have done right, and that, when the facts are understood, they will stand approved of their constituents.

If there is a majority of anti-Know Nothings in the Senate, as we suppose, they could not do better than to unite on Mr. Darsie for Speaker. A Good Stonr .- The Mt. Vernon Banner, edited by Lecky Harper, Esq., formerly of the
