In the British Parliament, during the past week there has been a protracted and ceregitic discussion of the bill introduced by Government to authorize the formation of a foreign legion, to be trained in this country and then to be despatched to the war. The proposal was not brought forward in no objectionable manner, and the occasion was seized by the Torics to pander to such narrow feelings as might still be ardoned against using the nid-of foreigners. But although the thetic was at first partially successful, the good sense of the country, onlightened by the explanations of the Ministry and the speeches of the liberal members generally, soon manifested likelf, and the measure was at length

The foreign calistment bill was read a third time and passed in the House of Commons on the night of the 221 inst. The House divided: for the motion 173; against 145; majority 38.

The bill was severely condemned both by the press and by the Opposition in Parliament, but, as the result shows, without effect. On the morning of the day the kill passed, the London Times thus concluded an elaborate article on the subject:

Messrs. Brown, Creswell, Darsie, Fry, Goodwin, Haldeman, Hamin, Hoge, Jamison, McCillntock, Piatt, Quiggle, Segar, Walton and Wherry—16—voted for Wm. M. Heister, dom. of Berks.

Messrs. Crabb, Ferguson, Fleuniken, Frick, Jordan, Killinger, Lewis, Merlinger, Selers, Sherman and Taggart—11—voted for John S. Skinner, Whig of Eric.

Messrs. Frarer and Skinner—2—voted for John S. Skinner, Whig of Eric.

Messrs. Hiester and Price did not vote.

Mr. Hendricks—1—voted for Mr. Frazer.

Messrs. Hiester and Price did not vote.

Mr. Hiester having received 15 votes, a majority of the whole vote cast, was thereupon declared duly elected Speaker of the Senate for the present acssion, and was conducted to the clair by Messrs. Hamilu and Skinner.
