PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 12, 1855.

VOLUME LXVIII----NUMBER 121.

The Crystal Palace in New York, according to the Tribune, is now paying expenses. It is is charge of Mr. Bevoort, who has been invoice clerk from the first, and acting Superintendent, notwithstanding another man received 311 a day for that service. The force of his assistants has been roduced from two handred to two. It is said to be still well filled with articles, and is visited daily by many visiters.

Farch Accinews.--While Caleb Lee was load-ing a gun in the barroom of the Kirk House, in Sarahaville, on New Year's morning, the gun went off sending the iron ramrod up through the ceiling, the thick floor, and a bed, passing through the be body of Samuel L. Kirk, a young man who was lying on the bod. It is thought that the wound was mortal.
