THE WEST ALLES AND THE CONTROL OF THE STATES AND THE CONTROL OF THE STATES AND THE CONTROL OF THE CONTROL O

ried. I've got ten daughters, gentlemen, [overpowering applause,] and you may have your pick.

Mr. Spioer sat down amid long continued plaudits. The generous proposal with which he concluded, secured him five sons-in-law.

The Cincinneti Columbian says, that an Association called the Know-Somethings which was started in that city some time since, to counteract the Know-Nothings, is growing very rapidly. It opposes the imposition of any di rect or indirect political or legal disabilities, on account of the secident of birth, or the holding of particular-religious sentiments. Applying these generalities to present cases, it denounces all distinction based on the religious opinions of candidates for office, and does not inquire whether a nominee is a Catholic or a Protestant—a native or foreigner, and wishes everybody to be obvious on these topics, and if they know them to keep shady.
