western States, Maryland and Delaware, and the central and northern parts of Virginia, Kentucky, and Missouri. The climate and production of this country are similar to those of Europe; the general ratio of health and average of life is higher notwithstanding the great floating European population, and the name of laborer is not degraded by a comparison with elaves.

3. Less than one-third of the total immigration has ontered the Lake country and the Valley of the Mississippi. The proportion of foreign population in New York and in Massachusetts is greater than in any western agricultural State except Wisconsin. It is also nearly as large as in California, a gold seeking community from the world at large.

"THE NATIONAL MAGAZINES," for February, has been received by J. L. Read, No. 76 Fourth street. This is a very excellent Magazine, especially adapted to Christian households. Its contents are of a high literary character, and reputation as a lecturer stands second to none in them gives them a peculiar charm. MADARE DE VRIES.—This gifted lady will arrive in this city to-day. Her concert, however, has been postponed to Thursday night, so as not to interfere with other undertakings of the same nature which occur between now and then. The sale of seats will commence on Wednesday,

THE WAR IN THE EAST. LATEST DISPATCH FROM GENERAL CAMBOBERT. The Moniteur says: "The Marshal Minister of War has received from the General Commanderin-Chief in the East, the following report, dated December 22, 1854:

"Monsieur lo Marechal,—The bad weather

"Monsieur lo Marechal,—The bad weather has continued, with rare and short intervals of innovement. We nevertheless continue, as much as possible to encircle the place with our trenches, and all the alege operations become perfect and solid, notwithstanding the rainy season, which renders the transport very difficult. "The two armies mutually assist each other. I am indebted to the English army for the transport of nearly all the cavalry I have under my orders in the Crimea, and, on my part, I have placed at the disposal of Lord Baglian my mules to convey his sick to Balaklaya, and teams to convey his ammunition. These exchanges con-
