THE Allegheny Councils on Thursday evening made the appropriations for the year 1855.—
The Select Council adopted a resolution appropriating $100 per annum to the Anderson Library Institute. HOME MATTERS. COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Judges McLine, Beggs and Adams.

Commonwealth vs. William Lecky, found guilty of selling liquor to an inebriate, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50, the costs of prosecution, and undergo are imprisonment of 59 days in the county jail. The highest punishment the law demands is sixty days—the Court gave Lecky credit of one day to balance one night (Friday) which he spent in prison. Judge McClure previous to pronouncing sentence animadverted in severe terms upon the heinousness of the prisoner's offence, "Were you permitted to go on with your nefarious traffic, this miserable old man would shortly have no farm and his poor wife be a tenant of the poor house." The Judge gave warning to any grog-sellers who might be within the sound of his voice, that this law would be rigidly enforced, and where the offence was clearly proved, the offender need expect no mercy. Motion for a New Trial.—Mr. Mahon addressed the Court of Quarter Sessions on Saturday in favor of a new trial to Edmund Fedderry, convicted of stealing trunks from the Excelsion Omnibus Company. He argued at length and with evident enrestness. Prosecuting Attorney Robertz replied on behalf of the Commonwealth.

The Court said: When this case was tried and the proposition was made by Mr. Mahon to admit the testimony of Augustus Myers, for the defence, the Court xuled out that testimony on the ground that Myers was a co-defendant, and was consequently an incompetent witness. But the Court promised, to grant a new trial, in case a single authority could be cited to the contrary. There is no such authority. None has been offered by the defence. The Court further remarked that a conviction does not discredit a witness. It is the santenoe—the lightness—which renders him incompetent. Myers plead guilty, and therefore stands in the attitude of sperson sentenced. He is disqualified by his own confestenced. BRICK HOUSE FOR SALE CHEAP! A dezu 8. CUTHBERT & SON, 140, 52 et.

Sour for the Poor.—We are informed that a gentleman appresses his readiness to supply the materials for making soup for one soup house, provided any other person will provide a room and an agent to dispense the soup to the needy. Who fore will come forward in this matter?

We perceive by the N. Y. Times that ten barreals of soup are dealt out daily by an association fin Brocklyn. The demand was greater than the supply, and the citizens subscribed $5000 to the philanthropic enterprise. Shall Pittaburgh be behind in this good work!
