MR. EDITOR: - Will you be kind enough to an Mr. Edition:—Will you be kind enough to answer some anxious inquirers some questions in relation to a subject which engages much attention at the present time? If so, please state—1. Why the press of Pittsburgh have been silent in regard to the increasing probabilities of our city having to pay the interest on the bonds given to some of the railroad companies which are about to suspend or stop altogether?

2. In what way can we save the bonds remaining in the hands and under the control of officers of roads about to suspend, and thus lessen the amount for which we are liable?

3. Have all the conditions on which the subscriptions by the city and county were given, been in every case complied with by the rail roads for whose benefit they were made?

4. Has the full amount of private subscriptions which had to be raised before the city and county bonds were handed over, been paid?

5. Can you give probable amount of the bonds for which we may become liable?

6. What tax would be in your judgment sufficient to meet the indebtedness of the city and county in such case?

If you will so far favor us as to answer the

If you will so far favor us as to answer the above questions, you will not only oblige us, but your readers in general, for anxiety in the matter is very apparent from many proofs which ease nuclear our observation. Jan'y 22, 1855. MARY TAX-PAYERS.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.—In reply to the first have been waiting for information. Before the faildanger to the city in that quarter. Since then the Directors of the Connelsville Railroad have been anxionaly examining into affairs, and we presume will soon be able to satisfy the public in relation to the whole matter, which we think they should do most fully and candidly. The annual reports of the Allegheny Valley road have not yet been made, and we are uninformed as to the exact condition of affairs. We hope here, also, there will be entire frankness and explicitness. The annual reports of the Steubenville Railroad have been published but are sometimes of data on which to form correct conductions that we are about the contract the conductions that we are about the contract to true state of affairs as before they were made. we hope it will hasten to relieve the anxiety of the of affairs. As the tax-payers are the only stockought to be informed in the most complete and full manner of their condition and prospects. The Chartiers Company, we are informed by one of

The other five questions we are unable to answer for want of information on the subject. They are questions which ought to be examined by the City Councils as soon as possible. The Councils are the proper and legitimate guardians of the city's interests, and can proceed to obtain infor-mation in a legal and official manner. The sooner they attend to it the better.

If any object to this course, on the ground that it is calculated to injure the sale of the bonds, and thus hedge up the path of the Railroad Directors, it can be replied, that the doubt and uncertainty now hanging over the subject has a more depressing effect upon credit than the plain unvarnished facts will probably prove-

If the Know Nothings of Massachusetts shall elect Henry Wilson to the office of United States Senstor, they will furnish a weapon to destroy their friends in Virginis more potent than any one which can be handled by Mr. Wise, though he is one of the most able and eloquent speakers in the United States. They will furnish an argument against themselves which will fill the lodges of their brethren with mourning."

This is plain enough for any one whose understanding is not below that of a fool. It is an acknowledgement that the Southern part of the Order demand the proscription of sani-Slavery men in the North as the condition of their coperation; and it is a still further acknowledgement that the leaders of the Order in Massachustst are disposed to yield to the demand. It must be so, in the very nature of things. No national party can be anti-slavery. The South will not co-operate with any organization of that character. Hence, if the new party desires to retain its Southern adherents it must discard every appearance of distinctive northern feeling. ELECTION OF SUPERIX JUDGES AND UNITED STATES SENATOR IN IOWA—DOURTS ADOUT ITS ITS VALIDITY.—Latest dates from Iowa City confirm the statemen of our attentive correspondent at Davenport, as to the election of James Harlan to the United States Senate by the Iowa Legislature; but there were some facts connected with the election that render its legality somewhat questionable, it seems. The Senate and House had been in joint convention on the afternoon of the 5th inst, and after several unsuccessful attempts to elect a Senator, proceeded to election of a Chief Justice, and two Associate Justices, of the Supreme Court. George G. Wright, of Van Buren, was elected Chief Justice, and W. G. Woodward Associate Justice.

Pending the ballotting for the other associate justice the joint convention on the morning of the 6th, the Senate was called to order, and the democratic members of that body moved and carried an adjournment until Monday, the 8th inst. At this moment a committee of the House appeared and informed the Senate that the House was ready to meet them in joint convention. The anti-Nebraska and a few of the democratic members of the Senate repaired to the House. The democrats openly declared their resolution to defeat any attempt to organize as a joint convention, but after battling with the an-the House. The democrats openly declared their resolution to defeat any attempt to organize as a joint convention, but after battling with the anti-Nebraska men for about one hour, and inding they were determined to organize, they all withdrew, with the exception of Mr. Witter of Scott, Mr. Neely, of Harrison, and Green Clark, of Marion.

Mr. Neely, of Harrison, and Green Clark, of Marion.

The convention, thus constituted, proceeded to the election of a Senator and an Associate Justice. Mr. Harlan received 62 votes—necessary to a choice 50—and was declared duly elected United States Senator. N. W. Isbell was elected Associate Justice by the same vote.

Whether the adjournment of the Senate to a period beyond that adopted for the meeting of the joint convention vitiates the election of the latter, is a matter which will have to decided by the Dritted States Senate, aboud the question by the United States Senate, should the question be raised when Mr. Harlan takes his seat.—Chi-cogo Press, Jan. 12,
