At the same time, the Gazette will not unite with any secret political order for the purpose of opposing Catholicism, or for any purpose whatever. We deem oaths and secrecy in political affairs dangerous to our institutions, subversive of our liberties, and a disgrace to the enlightened ago in which we live. While we believe useful reforms may be introduced into our naturalization laws, we are opposed to all proscription on account of the accident of a man's birth-place. We welcome a truly republican brother, though he may be born in Ireland or daily expected are thiores and burglars, common Germany, and after a reasonable probation we rejoice to greet him as a citizen; and while we conceive that the system of Popery and ought to be received kindly and offered an asy-Jesuitism is initileal to free institutions, and at lum on our shores. We have faith in the truth, sustained by an open hible, free speech, a free priess and a free ballot box.—

By the power of these weapons Rome will lose, the half of her rotatries who land on these shores, and many of the remainder will gradually emancipate themselves from her tyranny. They may remain nominally Catholics, bnt/they will be poors. Romanists. Politically, the Gazette is identified with that branch of the While party which has been hitherto characterized for its opposition to the dominion of slavery in our National Councills. It will continue this political affinity until some better organization arises. We have no object to receiving them? We think not. with us in sentiment, to endeavor to extend our circulation. We have no doubt that a little effort on the part of our friends will double our list. Active attempts have been made and are now making, by a class of proscriptive and intelerant men, to proscribe us and break us down because we will not consent to subject ourselves to a control which no independent American citizen can submit to. We therefore make this appeal to those who approve our principles and policy, and who feel an interest in preserving the freedom of speech, not so much for our own sake as for the sake of the cause to which we have devoted our energies. The manifestations of public approval, of late, have been extremely gratifying, and it is at the request of many of our friends that we have made this statement of our principles and fature course. It seemed our principles and future course. It seemed necessary at this time, when a secret enemy is laboring to injure us. We therefore make this

We are glad to see these movements of Catholies not that we rejoice at their difficulties, but because it shows that they are beginning to know and claim their rights as Christians and citizens. Every movement they make in resistance to oppression and injustice, advances them forward in the path of true Christian independence. We have no expectation that the Pope will listen to the appeal of the Chicago Catholics, mill listen to the appeal of the Unicago Cambridge or by doubling the rates upon the tax-payers.

Romanism in this country is subjected to trials against which it is diffisubjected to trials against which it is out out for such a stupendous system of error to contend, and which will subject it to wast retrial overthrow. As the rays of the section in light of truth shine upon the corrupt and effete system of Romanism, it becomes offensive even to those born in its communion, and thousands of them will seek a true Christianity.

A Sour Horse is about to be established in the Sixth Ward. Still they come.

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE | THE PROSCRIPTIONISTS. -We have lately reived several anonymous letters threatening us with attempts to injure our subscription list in with attempts to injure our subscription list in various quarters unless we reverse our course in regard to the new secret political Order—the Know-Nothings. As the charges made in these anonymous missives are generally false and slanderous, and as their spirit displays a bitter vindictiveness, we infer that men belonging to this secret party are busy circulating falsehoods and are attempting in this reprohensible manner to do us all the injury they can. We expected as much when we ventured to oppose an onth-bound, secret, prescriptive order, and are not therefore disappointed. We only notice the matter now to put our true friends on their guard and to urget them to withstand the efforts of those who would gladly, if in their power, blot the Pitts.

Persecution drove the Paritians to New England, the Quakers to Pennsylvania, the Hugucnots to South Carolina. In fact, it has founded this Republic; and many of those men whose memories we honor, and whose examples we point to with pride, were punished in Europe as criminals, or were forced to fly as outcasts to enjoy the liberty of thinking and worshiping as they thought fit. It is quite likely that, if the Sardinian Government has gone to the trouble to abip these men in one of its own frigates, they are political offenders, whose property has been stripped from them by injustice and oppression, and are not criminals, and paupers in the odious sense of those terms. Let us not add inhospitality to their other grievances, if they have been made to suffer for vindicating the rights to which all humanity are entitled.
