Last 1 winter the Pittsburgh Littrary Club was organ-ined. It has been-tolerably successful, and many young gentiemen have been benefitted by 1 it. This winter it is still in operation, and we are informed that a public meeting will be held on Saturday evening uset, to which the public are ( invited. The exercises will be interesting, and we have no doubt a large audience will be pres-ent. We hope the day will come when all the 1 young men-of our city who desire mental im-prorement and arperience in forestic discussion may be united in one great literary organisation. I k would redound to the credit of the city as well as materially benefit each individual who might as materially benefit each individual who might nect himself with it.

CITY NIGHT WATCH .- At a meeting of the Po-Hose Committee held on Tuesday evening at the Mayor's Office, the following named persons "were appointed on the Night Police, and their ap-pointments unanimously confirmed by the Com-mittee. ittee:

The Russian reinforcements were advancing by forced marches. The weather was frosty, with some snow, which retarded the besiegers. The Piedmontese troops embark on the 28th of February. Private Vienna letters say that Gortsobakoff is instructed to accept any terms, except the re-duction of the Russian floet and the occupation of Rassian territory. There is nothing further about the invasion of Bobrudscha
