nd. This beef is said that the impression is very general here, that this meat is derived entirely from the wild cattle that are supposed to be found in abundance in America, and it is binted that such an industry America, and it is hinted that such an industry being capable of a large development on account of the foreign demand that will go on from this time increasing, the French people should keep an eye to the matter. At this moment, the particular mania of the day in France is the formation of large companies for the exploitation of industrial pursuits; so it will not be surprising to see a company formed in France for the capture of wild cattle in America, for the supply of this salt meat demand in Europe."

RUNAWAY SLAVES.—The Cincinnati Columbias of Saturday last is informed that the travel over the underground railroad was unusually active, in that city, for the few days previous. No few er than seven lots of runaway slaves had arrived at that terminus within a week. The first of these lots was composed of three men; the next these lots was composed of three men; the fifth, of one man. All these were from Kentucky. The sixth lot was composed of two middle-aged, stout men, who had come on foot from Louisiana, elseping by day, and walking toward the North star at Night. They arrived in Cincinnation Wednesday, and after recruiting, were to be sont over the underground railroad to Canada. The last lot was composed of a mother and three children who came up on the mail boas from Louisville, and were to be taken to Paris Kentucky. She managed to get to some Aboil tionists, and was immediately sent North. Th
