With regard to the redemption of the city's bonds, as they mature, it is meet to say that the miform practice has been to take them up with politics is chairman of the Colt patent investiga new loans when it was not possible to redeem them outright. Last year the amount of bends maturing was $19,681 47. A new loan to this matering was payoos 47. A new form to this smount was suthorized to take up the bonds as they became due, and with the proceeds of this lean; ($19,600) the sum of $17,806 64 of the old lean was paid off as it matured. The balance would have been paid had it been presented. We presume that loans maturing in this and following years can be and will be met in a similar manner. So far, at least, the city has paid her bonds regularly, as they have fallen due; and the sont only refused to testify, but treated until she falls to do so it is not generous to cast suspicions upon her.
