NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS. PITTSBURGH GAZETTE. FRIDAY MOBNING, FEBRUARY 16, 1855. The Senatorial Question:

TO THE PUBLIC:

High convictions of duty impel the undersigned to submit to their fellow-citizens the following statement:

At the commoncement of the present Session of the Legislature, the friends of the American Organization, in the House of Representatives, resolved to not as an independent party. As such, they met in caucus, and determined to admit none to their deliberations but such as were known to be true to the great principles of that Organization. In vindication of those principles, they also determined to support no man for any office in the gift of the Legislature, who was not equally known to be true to them, as well as to the interests of the Commonwealth. At the Conventional Caucus, held to nominate a candidate for State Treasurer, members of the American Organization was refused admittance, simply because they had refused to co-operate with the party from the beginning, and to vote for its caucus nominees. But at the caucus hold on the evening of the 9th inst., those who had been refused admittance to the previous caucus were found in attendance; and some who were only known as bitter examises of the American Organization, were with us, directing and controlling known as bitter ensmiss of the American Organization, were with us, directing and controlling the nomination of one of the most intriguing, if not the most corrupt politician in the State. A resolution was offered to exclude these objectionable persons, and their own votes indefinitely postponed the consideration of the resolution.—A motion was then made to proceed to nominate a candidate for the U.S. Senate by a vice voce vote. An amendment was offered, substituting a rote by ballot. The amendment was adopted and the resolution carried by a majority of only three,—thus showing that those who had no right to be present held a controlling influence, or the balance of power.
