THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 22, 1855. From the American Organ. Senator Wilson on Slavery and American Bism. WASHINGTON, Feb. 17, 1855.—Dear Str.—Be-ferring you to my editorials for the last two weeks, I have to ask you how far I have correctly represented your views in my comments upon your letter of 20th January, and the articles in the Boston Bee, which I have copied? In other words, do you or not recognize the doctrine of State rights, so far as to permit the several States to regulate the question of slavery in their own mode within their State limits? Do you or not entertain the opinion that Congress has power to interfere with slavery in the States? Do you or not recognize that "higher law" doctrine, which permits you as Senator to disregard the binding obligations of the constitution? Does the "Amer-ican organization" in Massachusetts, embrace the question of slavery amongst those for the the regulation of which that organization was formed!. How little he of President North Datassian. Who makes his own desires a guide! His felly, rout his judgment, grows-His conscionce sleeps, but not his pride law of Presumption falls and turning the Heart-sick from His, because it finds In trançoit putches after that butters With calmer light, in steadar minds! instantiation of the string of SERATE CHAMBER, Feb. 19, 1855. Dear Sir.---My answer to your inquiries will to brief and explicit. Ist. I fully recognize the doctrine of State-right: in its application to slavery, as well as to any othey matter of public concern. The Virginia and Kentacky resolutions of 1798 in the main, as I think, correctly set forth that doctrine. Kanzas Outrago. The Kanzas Free State of the 20th ult., or tains the following:

Tan ARRET OF KISSAR, THE ALLEGED FOR-GRE.—We have already mentioned the arrest in Eric county, New York, of Kissane, who stands charged with having some months since obtain-ed in New York city, by forged paper, from the Chemical Bank $13,000, and from the Continen-tal Bank $5,000. The Tröune says these large sums were obtained in the following ingenious manner: He made his appearance at the counting room of a well known firm in the city, and presented, it is alleed, a forged letter of credit, which set forth that he way a member of a prominent firm in a weatern city, with which the New York firm had done an extensive business. Before leaving the counting room, he stated that he had a large amount of drafts, &c., on his person, which he wished to deposit in some bank for safe keeping, and requested an introduction to the bank in which the down-town firm kept its account..... The request was complied with, and a member of the firm accompanied him to the Chemical Bank, where he was introduced, and, before leaving upon them to the extent of $15,000. He then disappeared for a few days, and then returned with a cleck for the full amount of his deposit, which he wished certified. This was done, and ngain he left-obtained from a broker the money on the certified check, and started for the West. He was captured about six weeks afterwards, but secaped from the care while being brought to this city, and has now been re-arrested. Andrew Findlay and N. A. Cole, who are asid to have been connected with him in various - illainous transactions, are now in the Tombs.
