was greatly surprised that the charge was made against him.

R. C. Fleeson, of the Dispatch, was then called and testified that he had concerned himself in the matter in order to see justice done to a friendless stranger; he had accompanied Mr. Weston to Pittsburgh on Monday last, and in leaving St. Clair street, Weston involuntarily took the routs up, Virgin Alley as the shortest to Smithheld: he was not acquainted with our streets; went to Magee's where they recognized him; went to the bath room where also he was recognized; military men had tested Mr. W., and pronounced him a cavalry officer.

Msyor Adams remarked that there was no evidence to hold Mr. Weston and he was therefore discharged.

FROM THE ROYER GUARDS TO THE DUQUESTE GUARTS.—It is pleasant to observe such a spirit of kindly feeling existing in the ranks of our citizen-soldiery as exists between the Rower Guards, of Cincinnati, and the Duquesne Greys, of this city. The Greys last year visited their brethren in arms in Gincinnati with pleasure and satisfaction. This year, the visit was returned with equal gratification by the Guards.—It is now our pleasure to record another evidence of the fraternal feeling which is a bond unfitng the two companies in one.

In the show window of J. J. Gillespie's establishment on Wood street may be seen a work of art presented by the Guards Horse Guards to their hosts, the Duquesne Greys, in testimony of the hospitalishic vertunded to them during their recent visit to this city. It was received on Monday. The design is entirely original, its principal features being representations of military equipments, copied from the uniforms and account mental of both compenies. On either side of an arch is a member of the Greys and of the Guards, in full uniform. The upper portion of the arch is composed of knapsacks, surmounted by the fiags of both companies, their folds entwined and held together by the Guddess of Liberty, bearing a laurel wreath. The rays surrounding the divinity are composed of bayonats. In the background are groups, representing the convirtalities of the occasion—one the supper given at the St. Charles, and the other a grand believen. The vacant space under the arch is occupied by the inacription, in these words: "The Gincinnati Beyer Guards to the Pittsburgh Duquesne Greys, in commendation of the generous hospitality, chivalric courtesy, and fraternal kindness experienced by the Servi Guards during their visit to Pittsburgh, December 26th, 27th, 28th, 1864." Here follows he signatures of all the officers and enrolled members of the corps. This elegant testimonial is encasted in a beautifully ornamental military frame, and reflects infinite honor upon the bestowers and designer. The design is e

Nelson A. Adams (for himself and the Commonwealth) vs. Kramer & Rham. This is an action under the usary laws. The plaintiff alleges that he borrowed $8,500 from defendants and paid thereon fifteen per cent. interest. He claims to recover under the law of Pennsylvania that, if more than six per cent. be demanded and paid, the party upon receiving it shall forfeit the money leut, one half to go to the State and the other half to the party who shall sue for the same. Kramer & Rahm allege in defence that they were only acting as agents in the transaction; that they procured the loan for Mr. Adams from a third party, and that they received one-half per cent commission for their services. A BAD CHARACTER ARRESTED.—A man named William Cyres was examined at the Mayor's Office yeslerday on a charge of larceny and fully committed for trial. The Chronicle states that the larceny was perpetrated on the person of a man whose name we were unable to learn; but who, on the night of the 26th of January last, applied at the Mayor's office, and stated that a few hours previous, while standing at the counter in the Falstaff House, kept by James Dyer, or Fith street, his pocket book containing some $20 or $30, had been abstracted from his pockett. The police repaired to the scene of the occurrence, but failed to capture the real perpetrators, they having made good their escape.— Nothing further was heard of the matter until Friday night last, when a man, named. Andrew Stewart was arrested, while promenading our streets, in company with a lady and committed to jail for trial upon a charge of being concerned in the affair. From circumstances that arose out of the transaction, the police stongly suspected Cyres as being the ringleader in the matter, and took steps for his capture, and for the purpose of carrying out this design, officers Frost and Moon, last night repaired to the depot on Liberty street, but Tailing to find out the whereabouts of Cyres, at teu o'clock they separated and departed for their homes. Frost, who resides in the vicinity of the Ninth Ward, jumped on a train of cars going east, intending to get off when near his residence. The train had scarcely started, when who should he recognition was mutual, and Cyres suspecting the object of the officer, made his way to the platform, and was about springing to the ground, when Frost selected him by the collar and both fell together, Frost receiving some severe bruises. A scuffle ensued in which the culprit came off second best, and Frost, being the better man conducted him to the tombs where he now remains. Both Stewart
