Accident.-A young lady named Mary Martin ACCIDENT.—A young say named Mary Martin was severly injured in Allegheny, on Wednesday. She was crossing Fedoral street opposite Robinson, on her way to one of the Cotton Mills, her place of employment, when a horse attached to a dray, came dashing along, and before she could get out of the way, knocked her down, inflicting a severe cut on her face, besides injuring her internally. Miss Martin was conveyed to her home in the First Ward, where she now lies.

PICKPOCKETS ABOUT.—We are informed that a pocket-book containing a considerable sum of money was taken from a man at the Penna. R. R. depot on Wednesday morning. The same evaning an old German lost a pocket-book containing $40 in the same way. Officer Fox is on the look-out for these rascals, and as several persons: who are in the habit of loafing about the depot are suspected, they had better keep them solves straight or they will be caught.

NARROW ESCAPE, On Monday evening about NARDOW ESCAPE.—Us Alynday evening about seven o'clock, a pistol o rgun was fired through a back window of the residence of Mr. G. J. Young, Penn street, the contents lodging in the head of the bod in the room. Had the shot bean fired later, a probable loss of life would have resulted, as the bed is occupied by children. A man named Flaherty was arrested under suspicion and examined on Wednescay before Ald.
