SATURDAY MORNING, PEBRUARY 24, 1855. him. On the 2rd ballot, Johnson's and Moor-head's hopes were gone. Gov. Johnson owes his defeat to the opposition of James Cooper's friends and vice versa. Nearly the whole Whig wing of the cancins was concentrated on Curtin, an eastern man. Now, gentlemen, I represent the American party separately and distinctly.— But it is true that those of that party who were formerly Whige have got almost all the offices gained by the votes of that party. I therefore demanded that a Democrat should have the nom-ination, as a matter of justice. It was evident that either Curtin or Cameron must be nomina-ted; it was evident that if Curtin was nominated it would be a victory of that old, rotten and coryou reconcile that with your younger of the younger of the younger of twenty meetings (councils) held in Pittsburgh instructed me to the younger of the youn 7,2 for by having a member in that body from each of such divisions.

Resulted, That as a United States Senator is to be elected at the present session of the Legislature, and the member holding over being from the Eastern division, the delegation of either House from Allegheny county be desired and instructed to vote for some one well-known and reliable man, of which we have many, who shall be a resident of the Western division and none C. Simon Cameron never cast a vote in favor of the interests of Western Pennsylvanis. (Applause.) Cameron's rule always has been to vote with an eye to No. 1. The records will show that he voted with Dallas on the tariff of '42. Our representatives knew we had men emininently fit for the office; yet they described us—they mirrepresentations. B. C. Sawyer was called to the Chair, and Dr. Boisel appointed Secretary.

James Biddle, of the American; moved that B. T. C. Morgan be a Vice President. Col. John Small, William Alexander; and N. P. Sawyer, was also appointed Vice Presidents.

Mr. Alexander—I decline, Mr. President; I am a Cameron man. States Senator who is not in favor of the following measures:

1. A total repeal of our naturalization laws, or an extension of the term to twenty-one years—with such guards as may be necessary to prevent the enormous frauds now continually perpetristed.

2. The repeal of all acts of Congress in any way sustaining or recognizing chattel slavery—and the prohibition of slavery in all territories over which Congress has jurisdiction in this respect.

3. The appendix perment of domestic manufactures of the National Legislature at 12 o'clock at midnight on Saturday the 3d 6f March. After debate agreed to yeas 28, nays Voice—How are you on the goose question,

Mr. Curry then read a resolution instructing the delegates to vote for Thomas H. Baird.—
Voted down.
After remarks by B. T. C. Morgan (non-committal) and T. J. Bigham (sustaining the delogation) the resolutions of Mr. Foster were unanimously carried, with the amendment that the word "new" be struck out of the second resolution. There was no vote taken on the original resolutions.
The meeting then adjourned. It was almost allogether composed of members of the American organizations. It was one of the noisilest
