BURGLARS IN LIMBO—ESCAPE OF THE RING LADER.—On Thursday morning about 1 o'clock, as we learn from the Chronicle, a man named John Bosley, and two lads named Joseph Wickline and Jacob Moran, were arrested by officere Winslow and Graham, of the night watch, while attempting burglariously te enter a store on Liberty street. The culprits were conveyed to the tombs and searched—and on the person of Bosley, an "outsider," a small amount of money was found. The parties were locked up, but yesterday morning Bosley could not be found. The cell in which he had been confined was foundampty—the bird had flown. His escape is accounted for in this wise: The watchman who had charge of the prisoner had another culprit under his care, and while conducting him up into that office, left Bosley's cell door open, who having no taste for confined wasting an examination.

lot should be fenced up.

Numerous complaints are made with regard to ashes lying in different parts of the streets.

They have all been attended to.

Coal Boat Disaster.—On Wednesday afternoon, an accident happened to a pair of coal boats passing through Lock No. 1, on the Most manner. The pilot of the coal boats had his line made fast to the lock, in curier to check the progress of the boats, which swung out into the channel; but, unfortunnicly, the cable booke, and the boats came in cantact, with those lying helow. One was crushed in and sunk instantly sud the other is hadly injured, but is still aforathe men escaped safe. The beds was owned by MElhoe & Co. At 10 colopk on Wednesday night, another coal boat was sunk in the day hours took No. 1. No person was drowned.—

THE COMPLAINT BOOK IN ALLEGEMENT.—The following complaints were entered in the Allegheny Complaint Book during the past two days:

That the sidewalk on the bank of the river from the end of Morgan street to the first alley is in an almost impassable condition.

That a crowd of boys collects daily in the rear of the Third Ward Echool House on the alley opposite the Temperance Ark, and its great annoyance to the immediate neighborhood.

That a quantity of rubbish lying in the burnt district on the Diamond is a nuisance, and the lot should be fenced up.

Namework complaints was made with tions were never more solive.

A report had reached England via Berlin that the Crar was dangerously ill and given up by his physicians. Although it wanted confirmation the funds advanced.

The orders prohibiting the export of wheat from Poland into Prussia came into effect on the stand, be there to-night again. Go, everybody!

renewellar, Marca 15.—Rew Orleans, Savannah and Charleston papers as late as due are received.

The Charleston Courier gives additional details of the destruction by fire in the woods in South Carolina. Many houses, mills and other property had been destroyed on several railroads. Cotton trains had been burnt, and whole plantations with all-'the buildings in some Instances were swept away. The turpentine distilleries have also suffered. Near Cheraw 300,000 turpentine boxes were burnt.

At Charleston, the military campanies have been called out to settle difficulties on the North Eastern railroad. Thirty rioters were arrested and committed to jail.
