SALE OF THE MAIN LINE.-We gave yester-Legislature for the sale of the main line of our public works. There is so much objectionable in this bill, and such powerful influences are at all, or even to vote, as they would be acting work to put it through, that we hasten to state wholly in the dark. Where a ticket was nomiwork to put it through, that we hasten to state work to put it through, that we hasten to state the grounds of our opposition, and to apprise the people of the injury to their interests which it contemplates. We have been among the advocates of a sale of the main line, at a fair price, and on equitable principles; but not in view of such an enormous sacrifice as is now proposed nor of a policy which, if successful, will endan ger the useful existence of the canal altogether

The minimum price fixed upon in the bill is seven millions of dollars! a sum so low, that if the Pennsylvania Railroad should become the purchaser, as is no doubt understood and intended, been any substantial increase in numbers since shaser, as is no doubt understood and intended, chaser, as is no count understood and intended, it could afford to abandon the use of the largest it he fall elections; and third, there is no good portion of the canal altogether, or to sell it out reason to believe that they number much more for a mere nominal price to a company of spectrum of the county. We rs. We will show this by a few figures. The main line proposed to be sold, is 894 miles long, composed of 276 miles of canal, and 118 miles of railroad, as follows:

..394 Length of Main line. It would now cost to construct this line, from Pittsburgh to Columbia, say— Western Division Canal...... ..$2,500,000 2,000,000 4,500,000

It probably would not cost $5,000,000 to build the Columbia Railroad, but we estimate it worth is would give that company a continuous ration; whereas, if it should construct another road at an expense of $4,000,000 or $4,500,000, it would have to meet with the direct competition of the Columbia road. That work also earned last year over 8 per cent. on $5,000,000 capital, the rise is would give the sanction of an extra-judicial oath, and submit himself to the fellowship and control of a secret, irresponsible tribunal, can never tell when the rise is voting for a person who will represent the rise and never tell when the principles or not. His neighbor may profess to be a Democrat, or a Whig, or a Freesoller, and the confidence and respect to three bottles will clear the system of blies. Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst casher? that much to the Pennsylvania Railroad, because is sold for $7,000,000, that the cansi will go for brother, and possibly brother in the church, may nothing; while if the Pennsylvania road chooses all the time belong to a secret order, and be plot-to offer a trifle over seven millions, and thereby ting in some midnight assemblage to defeat and becomes the purchaser, it not only gets the main line but gets rids of the tonunge tax. This tax last year was about $120,000, and is likely to be still larger; and a surrender of it by the tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics, tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics and tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics and tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics and tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics are tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics are tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics are tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics are tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics are tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of politics are tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of years and years are tax last year was about $120,000, and the subject of years are tax last years State is equivalent, to the company, to a capital where the frankest intercourse ought always to oharacterize the citizens of a free government.

It is our profound conviction that nothing has of the pending bill, $7,500,000 for the main line it is easy to see that they gain thereby the yearly interest at 5 per cent. on $2,500,000 of this sum in the release of the tonnage tax, so that they would, in effect, get the main line for fire millions! Should this arrangement be consumma-ted the company can afford to abandon the canal altogether, for although the bill imposes on it the duty of keeping the canal open, it provides no penalty for non-compliance; or it may impose tolls so high a effectually to prevent all competition with itself; or it may sell it to any company which would pay two or three millions of dollars for it, including the Portage Railroad. We have no objection to the Pennsylvania Railroad being permitted to purchase the Columbia road being permitted to purchase and the subserved thereby. The company will be subserved thereby. The company must have a line to Philadelphia. Its interests demand it. A charter has been secured for it, and the work can and will be accomplished, unless other arrangements are be accomplished, unless other arrangements are the accomplished, unless other arrangements are being a triangle to say, this daily paper comes to us reg.

We would therefore favor the sale of the Columbia road to the fer the contrary from the all-pervading silence of Pennsylvania Railroad at five millions of dollars, for a favor the sale of the Columbia road to the Pennsylvania Raliroad at five millions of dollars, and the canal and Portage Raliroad also, to another company, at not less than five millions more. It is worth that sum and ought to bring it.

Besides the tide-water navigation which is now enjoyed, the enlargement of the Union Canal will soon be finished, much of the work beingal-ready done. This will give uninterrupted water navigation from Hollidaysburg to Philadelphia. The completion of the Portage Raliroad will not only facilitate transportation, but it will greatly lessen the expenses of that line.—Bhall thus great work, then, be given up for the paltry sum of two millions, when it could not be constructed for less than hine millions?

The bill is objectionable in another feature.—It gives the preference to a Canal or Raliroad Company as purchasers, thus giving such corporations an advantage over any other company or individuals. The state is thus deprived of the benefits of a vigorous competition of capitalists generally. It is evident that the bill has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and the pitch has been drawn up to suit the interests of the Pennsylv of other persons who may be parties to the specsale of any part of the line by the first purchaser.

While we are entirely friendly to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and feel disposed to promote its interest and success by all just and proper legislation, yet we cannot consent that for its benefit, or that our citizens shall be deprived of the benefits of the canal as a competing line, and as affording the only mode of transportation for some articles, and to some parts of the State. And we warn the Pennsylvania Railroad that, although it may succeed by this means in repealing the three mill tonnage tax, and also virtually break down all competifrom the canal, it may not be able to control future Legislatures. This legislature can not bind its successors, and if the people of the State shall feel that they have been injured by

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., March 16.—We have just received by express, the proclamation of Governor Reeder. It is yet unpublished, as it seems there is no hurry on the part of His Excellency to have it circulated abroad. The manuscript is in a printing office in Lawrence, whence our herald procured a copy. The whole will be published here to-morrow. The most important are the following paragraphs relative to election:
"A voter must dwell here at the time of offering his vote. He must then have commenced an actual inhabitancy, which he actually latends to continue permanently, and he must have made the Territory his dwelling to the exclusion of any other home. In case any election its contested, the parties aggrieved must bring the matter before the Governor, who shall determine the case between the parties contesting." He thus makes himself Legislator, Judge and Executive.

The election takes place on Friday, 30th inst. and annoyances of equal importance. We advise the State to sell the Columbia Railroad at five millions of dollars, and the Central road ought to buy it at that price. If the remainder of the line can not be sold for at least five millions, then let the State encourage the early completion of the enlargement of the Union Canal, and work the line with economy, and we doubt not it will pay a dividend, while it will act as a check on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Without some such check, the cities of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia would soon find themselves in the power of the Central road. The Baltimore and New York lines answer very well for compelling moderation on through business, from the great centres of the west; but they answer but little purpose for protecting the im-mense carrying trade of the people of our own State, whose prosperity is measurably bound up with the interests of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. The effect of the competition of the Canal is seen just at this moment, when the Railroad has lowared its freights, because the Canal is open. Certainly not

The point claimed by the defense seems to be that the master has the right of transit, with his slaves over the territory, and that the right of navigation carries with it necessary use of banks.
