PITTSBURGH GAZETTE PUBLISHED BY D. N. WHITE PITTSBURGH: BILL POOLS AND THE PARS OF NEW YORK... There is said truth in every word of the follow-ing article, from the Botton Atlas. We have been utterly astonished at the course of the press in New York, even the most respectable portion of it, in relation to the case of the pugilist Poole. We are glad to see that the ridiculous excite-ment and pother has not extended beyond that city, and that the course of the press there has excited almost universal regret not unmingled them on information being made before him -ecessary labor on the Sabbath is not only illegal, and in our view sinful, but is a violation of a wise economy and hurtful to the general welfare. We can hardly believe that the many respectable gentlemen engaged in the manufac-ture of glass would require or permit any labor to be performed which is not absolutely neces-sary to the successful management of the busiwith the Kanzas emigrants on board from this ness. This is not the time and place to enter into the examination of the question whether glass is so much a necessary of life, that the labor which is necessary for its successful production may with propriety be allowed on the Sabbath. We leave that to the decision of church and co-clesiastical tribunals; while every christian man who is required to make the decision for himself must answer to his own conscience in the feat of God. "We may add that we have been informed on what we regard as wholly unquestionable an-thority, that a national council of the American or Know Nothing party was held s fow days ago in the city of New York; that it consisted of nu-merous delegates from all parts of the Union; that a motion was made by one of its members to engraft freesoilism upon the party creed; and that the resolution uses voide down unanimously." We do not know that the American party will. The strength of the Know Nothinge has not the sharery question, but we believe that it is making a sincere and asarest effort to do so in despite of the exercise of some influential men, in its enganization; and we kope, trust, and bay illere that it will be successful."
